2025-26 Team

- Santa Clara is led by head coach Niall Angus who is in his 10th season at the helm and assisted by Josh Page who is in his second season.
- Angus is currently the second winningest coach in Santa Clara men's tennis history with 118 wins entering the 2026 spring dual match season. Sean Burns is the Broncos all-time winningest coach with 130 career wins.
- The spring roster is comprised of nine players including eight returnees and one newcomer, Ferran Redza, who joined as a mid-year enrollee. Redza reached a career-high World Junior ITF ranking of 307 and played in the main draw of the 2025 Junior Wimbledon doubles.
- In 2024-25, the Broncos finished 15-9 overall including 5-2 in the West Coast Conference, tied for second in the WCC.
- Last season the Broncos were ranked nationally for 11 straight weeks and finished No. 73 nationally, qualifying for the WCC Tournament for the seventh straight season.
- In the mid-major rankings, they finished No. 25 and in the Northwest Regionals rankings, No. 6. Luca Bluett and Kim were ranked No. 8 in the Northwest Regional doubles list.
- Four returners garnered All-WCC recognitions: Bluett and Kim were named to the doubles second team. Bluett also made singles honorable mention along with Watanabe Eriksson and Luca Lemaitre.
- The team lost just one player from last season, Payton Jim-On.

Season Notes

- Santa Clara plays a single match this week, hosting Oregon on Sunday at home.
- The Broncos are coming off a split at last week's ITA Kickoff Weekend in Starkville, Mississippi, falling 4-1 to tournament host, No. 7 Mississippi State on Friday and beating Alabama 4-2 on Saturday. The tournament was moved up by a day due to inclement weather in the area.
- SCU's doubles team of Luca Bluett and John Kim was named the West Coast Conference Doubles Team of the Week after defeating a pair of nationally ranked doubles teams at the ITA Kickoff Weekend. They beat No. 2 Petar Jovanovic and Benito Sanchez Martinez from Mississippi State and downed No. 12 Jacob Olar and Andrii Zimnokh from Alabama.
- Bluett and Kim improved to 3-0 in dual matches on the season as a tandem.
- Bluett is also 3-0 in singles, tied atop the team lead in wins with Valentin Faure (3-1) and Lukas Maskow.
- Santa Clara was picked to finish third in the West Coast Conference preseason poll as voted by the league's eight head coaches.
- During the 2025-26 fall season, Bluett and Kim became the first-ever Santa Clara men's tennis players to qualify for the NCAA Individual Championships. They were one of the 32 doubles teams that competed in the 2025 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Singles and Doubles Championship. They fell in the opening round in three sets to the doubles team from Penn, Aaron Sandler and Manfredi Graziani.
- The last and only time Santa Clara had a qualifier at the NCAA Individual Championships was in 2014 when women's player Katie Le played in her third consecutive singles championship from 2012-14.
- The 2012 SCU men's team qualified for the NCAA Team Championships.
- To qualify for the NCAA Individual Championships, Bluett and Kim won three straight matches at the ITA Sectional Championships. The finalists and third place finisher at the sectionals received a qualifying bid to the NCAA Championships.
- Bluett and Kim finished the fall with a 6-4 record while paired together.
- Last season, their first playing together, Bluett and Kim were a combined 14-7 including 12-6 in dual matches and 2-1 over the fall. All 12 wins in the spring came atop the doubles lineup helping them land second team All-West Coast Conference honors.
- Kim and Alexander Watanabe Eriksson recorded a team-high six singles victories during the fall campaign.
