Series History (since 2002)..... UC Davis leads, 22-11
 In Santa Clara, Calif..... UC Davis leads, 11-7
 Current Streak..... W1, UC Davis
 Last Meeting..... Feb. 21-23, 2025 | UC Davis won the series, 2-1

Series Notes

- Santa Clara continues its longest home stand of the season this weekend with a three-game non-conference series versus UC Davis out of the Big West Conference, starting Friday.
- The two teams have split their last eight meetings dating to 2023, with the Broncos winning two of the three games played in Santa Clara in 2024.
- The Aggies took two of three from the Broncos last season in Davis, Calif., on the same exact weekend as this season's meeting (Feb. 21-23, 2025). Santa Clara earned a series-evening, 7-5, extra-innings victory in game two but fell in the finale, 6-2.
- Santa Clara has won three of the last four meetings against the Aggies played at Stephen Schott Stadium dating to 2019, but UC Davis won three consecutive in the South Bay before that (2014-16).

Season Notes

- LAST TIME OUT: Santa Clara endured an early offensive onslaught and a 22-minute rain delay Wednesday, then came from behind for the second game in a row, breaking a tie with two runs in the seventh to beat San Jose State, 8-6, at Stephen Schott Stadium. Santa Clara (3-2) and San Jose State (2-2) combined for 10 runs on seven hits and 10 walks in the first two innings to start the afternoon with a 5-5 tie. Will Anderson drove home the eventual winning run with a single in the seventh, and Camden Sos added an insurance RBI two batters later.
- Senior infielder Thomas Ferroggiaro and junior right-hander Max Bayles earned the first West Coast Conference Rawlings Player and Pitcher of the Week awards of the season Monday after leading the Broncos through their first three games of the season on the road at California.

Ferroggiaro reached base nine times, scored six runs and stole two bases with two multi-hit performances in three games in Berkeley, Calif., over the weekend. He reached base four times on Friday, going 2 for 3 with two walks and scoring three runs. He went 3 for 4 in game one of Saturday's doubleheader with another walk, two runs scored, and a career-high-tying two stolen bases. He extended his active hitting streak to seven games -- a carryover of his four-game streak to end the 2025 season -- with a double and run scored in Saturday's doubleheader nightcap. Bayles threw four shutout innings with five strikeouts on the road Friday, earning the victory and leading Santa Clara to a blowout, 13-2, run-rule win. Bayles only allowed one runner to reach third base, and only two others past first base in his four innings of work.

2026 Santa Clara University BRONCOS BASEBALL

Season Notes

• Santa Clara is already back to its come-from-behind ways five games into this season after spending the last two years as “comeback kids.” The Broncos already have two come-from-behind wins and have erased four total deficits in 2026.

The team totaled 26 come-from-behind wins in 2024 and '25. More than half of Santa Clara's wins in 2025 (13) were of the “come-from-behind” variety. The Broncos were also “comeback kids” in 2024, earning half of their 26 wins (13) in come-from-behind fashion. Santa Clara erased 23 different deficits during the 2024 campaign at any given point in a game. It erased 27 different deficits in 2025.

• Several Broncos are carrying active hitting streaks and reached base safely streaks they ended 2025 with. The largest is Thomas Ferroggiaro's now-26-game reached base streak, started on April 15, 2025, at Cal Poly. He also has a 12-game hitting streak, after carrying over a four-game streak from last season (started on May 11, 2025 versus San Diego). Max Ross brought with him a 13-game reached base streak, started on April 17, 2025, at LMU, but it ended at 15 games on Saturday when he failed to reach base in game two of the Broncos' doubleheader at California. Johnny Luetzow has a 15-game active reached base streak, which he kicked off last season with a 10-game run starting versus Pacific on April 27, 2025.

• Santa Clara returns 24 letterwinners -- including seven positional starters and three starting pitchers -- in 2026. The returners include all-West Coast Conference second team honoree Max Bayles and all-WCC Honorable Mentions Ben Cleary and Cooper Lanz. The Broncos return no less than 65% of every offensive statistical category from last season, and they bring back at least 60% if not more of every pitching stat category outside of saves, where only four of 11 saves last year return.

• The Broncos also welcome 16 newcomers to the roster in 2026, composed of five transfers (four four-year college transfers, one junior college transfer) and 11 true freshmen. 10 of the 11 freshmen are from California, with six of those from Northern California, and even four of those come specifically from the South Bay and Santa Clara County. Three of the five transfers (Will Anderson, James Bose, Bryant Viskovich) also have South Bay roots.

• Santa Clara junior right-hander Max Bayles raked in the preseason honors heading into the 2026 season. He was named to the Perfect Game West Coast Conference Preseason Team, then was named the WCC Preseason Pitcher of the Year by D1Baseball.com. He also landed on the official WCC Preseason Team, as voted on by the league's coaches. He was ranked the top 2026 MLB Draft Prospect in the WCC by D1Baseball.com after spending time this summer in both the Cape Cod League and at the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team training camp

• Santa Clara won 20 games in 2025, marking its fourth consecutive 20-or-more wins season, the first time the Broncos have done that in 17 years. The Broncos posted back-to-back .500-or-better seasons for the first time in 18 years in 2023 and '24, and made the postseason in back-to-back seasons for the first time in 27 years in 2023 and '24.

• Senior right-handed pitcher Cooper Lanz was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Preseason “Stopper of the Year” Watch List on Feb. 10. Lanz, who joined the Broncos in 2025 after previous stops at Pacific and Modesto Junior College, earned all-WCC Honorable Mention recognition in his first season at Santa Clara after appearing in 13 games and moving into the starting rotation late in the year. He led the team with four wins and posted a 3.75 ERA across 36 innings pitched, striking out 28 while holding opponents to a team-best .148 batting average. Lanz went 4-1 against WCC opponents with a 2.92 ERA and a .132 opponent batting average in 24 2/3 innings.

• Santa Clara had 12 players play professional baseball in 2025, including Tommy Nance (at Santa Clara in 2012-13), who posted a 1.99 ERA in 30 relief appearances for the AL champion Toronto Blue Jays, and Steven Wilson ('18), who made 59 appearances for the Chicago White Sox and carried a 3.42 ERA.
