2025-26 Team

- Santa Clara is led by head coach Niall Angus who is in his 10th season at the helm and assisted by Josh Page who is in his second season.
- Angus is currently the second winningest coach in Santa Clara men's tennis history with 118 wins entering the 2026 spring dual match season. Sean Burns is the Broncos all-time winningest coach with 130 career wins.
- The spring roster is comprised of nine players including eight returnees and one newcomer, Ferran Redza, who joined as a mid-year enrollee. Redza reached a career-high World Junior ITF ranking of 307 and played in the main draw of the 2025 Junior Wimbledon doubles.
- In 2024-25, the Broncos finished 15-9 overall including 5-2 in the West Coast Conference, tied for second in the WCC.
- Last season the Broncos were ranked nationally for 11 straight weeks and finished No. 73 nationally, qualifying for the WCC Tournament for the seventh straight season.
- In the mid-major rankings, they finished No. 25 and in the Northwest Regionals rankings, No. 6. Luca Bluett and Kim were ranked No. 8 in the Northwest Regional doubles list.
- Four returners garnered All-WCC recognitions: Bluett and Kim were named to the doubles second team. Bluett also made singles honorable mention along with Watanabe Eriksson and Luca Lemaitre.
- The team lost just one player from last season, Payton Jim-On.

Season Notes

- No. 39 Santa Clara plays one match this week, hosting Dartmouth on Saturday at the Degheri Tennis Center. Dartmouth is 11-4 on the season and will be playing their first true road contest. They are 9-1 at home and 2-3 in neutral site matches so far on the year.
- Santa Clara head coach Niall Angus, in this 10th season at the helm, is one win shy of tying Sean Burns for the most wins in program history with 130 career victories.
- Angus picked up career win 129 when SCU took down No. 61 Boise State 4-1 on the road last Saturday. It was their second victory against a ranked opponent in the last three matches, having defeated No. 74 UNLV on Feb. 22.
- Santa Clara has won seven matches in a row and are currently ranked No. 39. They were ranked No. 38 in the last two rankings, the highest ranking the program has achieved since 2013 when they were No. 37.
- Luca Bluett and John Kim are currently ranked as the No. 50 doubles team in the nation. The tandem reached a season-high ranking of No. 17 on Feb. 4.
- Tiago Boschmans and Luca Lemaitre entered the doubles rankings this week at No. 57.
- The West Coast Conference has recognized Santa Clara three times this spring with their weekly awards: 1) Valentin Faure and Ferran Redza were named WCC Doubles Team of the Week on Feb. 24; 2) Luca Bluett and John Kim also took home the WCC Doubles Team of the Week honors back on Jan. 27; and 3) Redza also was named the WCC Freshman Player of the Week on Feb. 3.
- Two Broncos have had 3-all clinchers this season: Redza against Oregon and Kim against Washington.
- SCU has three wins against nationally ranked doubles opponents this spring - Bluett and Kim beat No. 2 Petar Jovanovic and Benito Sanchez Martinez from Mississippi State and downed No. 12 Jacob Olar and Andrii Zimnokh from Alabama. Tiago Boschmans and Luca Lemaitre defeated No. 80 Miguel Avendano and Lucca Liu of UC Santa Barbara.
- Bluett and Kim are 5-2 in doubles dual matches on the season. Tiago Boschmans leads the team with nine doubles victories with eight of those while paired with Luca Lemaitre.
- The doubles team of Boschmans and Lemaitre (8-1) have a seven-match win streak.
- Lukas Maskow (9-4) leads the team in singles wins with nine including a four match win streak.
- Kim has the longest current singles win streak with five.
- In doubles play, the Broncos are 23-7 on the year.
- The Broncos are a combined 36-9 in singles No. 3-6 this spring.
- Santa Clara was picked to finish third in the West Coast Conference preseason poll as voted by the league's eight head coaches.
- During the 2025-26 fall season, Bluett and Kim became the first-ever Santa Clara men's tennis players to qualify for the NCAA Individual Championships. They were one of the 32 doubles teams that competed in the 2025 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Singles and Doubles Championship. They fell in the opening round in three sets to the doubles team from Penn, Aaron Sandler and Manfredi Graziani.
- The last and only time Santa Clara had a qualifier at the NCAA Individual Championships was in 2014 when women's player Katie Le played in her third consecutive singles championship from 2012-14.
- The 2012 SCU men's team qualified for the NCAA Team Championships.
- Bluett and Kim finished the fall with a 6-4 record while paired together.
- Last season, their first playing together, Bluett and Kim were a combined 14-7 including 12-6 in dual matches and 2-1 over the fall. All 12 wins in the spring came atop the doubles lineup helping them land second team All-West Coast Conference honors.
- Kim and Alexander Watanabe Eriksson recorded a team-high six singles victories during the fall campaign.
