Series Notes

- Santa Clara returns home to open a five-game home stand starting Tuesday when it hosts ACC member Pittsburgh for a single mid-week game.
- Tuesday marks the first meeting between the Broncos and Panthers. Santa Clara split a four-game series with another ACC member -- California -- to start the year and still has three more games after Tuesday against ACC members; two versus Stanford and one against Clemson.
- Pittsburgh is already 5-0 this season against teams from California. It beat Long Beach State and CSU Bakersfield in Corpus Christi, Texas, at the Kleberg Bank College Classic, and swept San Jose State in a three-game series last weekend.
- Santa Clara is 3-0 in its last three midweek games dating to last season, finishing 2025 with two consecutive midweek wins and winning its only one this year vs. SJSU.

Season Notes

- LAST TIME OUT: Santa Clara traveled 1,400 miles last weekend to take on top-15-ranked Oklahoma out of the mighty SEC, dropping all three games of the series but playing mighty competitively in two of them. Max Bayles struck out a season-high 10 in Thursday's opener and Will Anderson tied the game at 1-1 with an RBI single in the sixth, but the Sooners escaped with a 2-1 victory. The Broncos pushed the Sooners again in Sunday's series finale, tying the game at 4-4 in the fourth before eventually falling, 8-6. Oklahoma took Saturday's game two, 8-0.
- Sophomore designated hitter Tate Medicoff was a one-man wrecking crew Sunday at No. 10/14 Oklahoma. Medicoff finished 2 for 4 with his first home run of the season, a two-run double and a career-high five RBIs, driving in all but one of Santa Clara's six runs in the contest. Medicoff's two-run shot in the second inning cut the Sooners' (14-2) early three-run lead down to one. His two-run double in the fourth tied the game at 4-4.
- The freshmen pitchers in the Broncos' bullpen are already making an impact four weeks into the season. Jackson Cook has entrenched himself into the weekend rotation in his first month of college baseball, and after allowing only two earned runs in four innings at No. 10/14 Oklahoma on Sunday, has dropped his ERA to 4.72. Trevor Banning, Nick Chow, Cook, Max Reimers and Chase Ruden have combined to go 2-1 with a 3.78 ERA and record 36 total strikeouts while holding opponents to a .157 batting average against.

Season Notes

• Senior infielder Thomas Ferroggiaro and junior right-hander Max Bayles earned the first West Coast Conference Rawlings Player and Pitcher of the Week awards of the season on Feb. 16 after leading the Broncos through their first three games of the season on the road at California.

Ferroggiaro reached base nine times, scored six runs and stole two bases with two multi-hit performances in three games in Berkeley, Calif., over the weekend. He reached base four times on Friday, going 2 for 3 with two walks and scoring three runs. He went 3 for 4 in game one of Saturday's doubleheader with another walk, two runs scored, and a career-high-tying two stolen bases. He extended his active hitting streak to seven games -- a carryover of his four-game streak to end the 2025 season -- with a double and run scored in Saturday's doubleheader nightcap. Bayles threw four shutout innings with five strikeouts on the road Friday, earning the victory and leading Santa Clara to a blowout, 13-2, run-rule win. Bayles only allowed one runner to reach third base and only two others past first in his four innings of work.

• Santa Clara is already back to its come-from-behind ways four weeks into this season after spending the last two years as "comeback kids." The Broncos already have two come-from-behind wins and have erased 10 total deficits in 2026.

The team totaled 26 come-from-behind wins in 2024 and '25. More than half of Santa Clara's wins in 2025 (13) were of the "come-from-behind" variety. The Broncos were also "comeback kids" in 2024, earning half of their 26 wins (13) in come-from-behind fashion. Santa Clara erased 23 different deficits during the 2024 campaign at any given point in a game. It erased 27 different deficits in 2025.

• Thomas Ferroggiaro stretched his reached base safely streak to 30 games Thursday before seeing it end on Saturday. The streak had started on April 15, 2025, at Cal Poly. Ben Cleary had an eight-game hitting streak come to an end Sunday, but he's still reached base in 15 consecutive games -- all 14 in 2026 and the last game of 2025.

• Santa Clara returns 24 letterwinners -- including seven positional starters and three starting pitchers -- in 2026. The returners include all-West Coast Conference second team honoree Max Bayles and all-WCC Honorable Mentions Ben Cleary and Cooper Lanz. The Broncos return no less than 65% of every offensive statistical category from last season, and they bring back at least 60% if not more of every pitching stat category outside of saves, where only four of 11 saves last year return.

• The Broncos also welcome 16 newcomers to the roster in 2026, composed of five transfers (four four-year college transfers, one junior college transfer) and 11 true freshmen. 10 of the 11 freshmen are from California, with six of those from Northern California, and even four of those come specifically from the South Bay and Santa Clara County. Three of the five transfers (Will Anderson, James Bose, Bryant Viskovich) also have South Bay roots.

• Santa Clara junior right-hander Max Bayles raked in the preseason honors heading into the 2026 season. He was named to the Perfect Game West Coast Conference Preseason Team, then was named the WCC Preseason Pitcher of the Year by D1Baseball.com. He also landed on the official WCC Preseason Team, as voted on by the league's coaches. He was ranked the top 2026 MLB Draft Prospect in the WCC by D1Baseball.com after spending time this summer in both the Cape Cod League and at the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team training camp

• Santa Clara won 20 games in 2025, marking its fourth consecutive 20-or-more wins season, the first time the Broncos have done that in 17 years. The Broncos posted back-to-back .500-or-better seasons for the first time in 18 years in 2023 and '24, and made the postseason in back-to-back seasons for the first time in 27 years in 2023 and '24.

• Santa Clara had 12 players play professional baseball in 2025, including Tommy Nance (at Santa Clara in 2012-13), who posted a 1.99 ERA in 30 relief appearances for the AL champion Toronto Blue Jays, and Steven Wilson ('18), who made 59 appearances for the Chicago White Sox and carried a 3.42 ERA.

Season Notes

- Senior right-handed pitcher Cooper Lanz was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Preseason "Stopper of the Year" Watch List on Feb. 10. Lanz, who joined the Broncos in 2025 after previous stops at Pacific and Modesto Junior College, earned all-WCC Honorable Mention recognition in his first season at Santa Clara after appearing in 13 games and moving into the starting rotation late in the year. He led the team with four wins and posted a 3.75 ERA across 36 innings pitched, striking out 28 while holding opponents to a team-best .148 batting average. Lanz went 4-1 against WCC opponents with a 2.92 ERA and a .132 opponent batting average in 24 2/3 innings.
