Game/Season Notes

Coming Up:

- Santa Clara heads to Stockton, California to face Pacific in a West Coast Conference series starting Friday.
- The Broncos are second in the WCC standings with a 7-2 record, while the Tigers are in seventh place at 1-8. Saint Mary's is atop the standings at 5-1, having played one less series.

Last Time Out:

- Santa Clara is coming off another series win, sweeping San Diego last weekend at home. It was their fifth consecutive series win this year. The first four series wins were by taking two out of three games.
- Taryn Clements had two game-winning hits in the series. She blasted a two-run home run to put the Broncos ahead 2-1 in the bottom of the second in the series opener that they would go on to win 9-1 in a run-ruled five inning game. And in the series finale, Clements drove in the go-ahead runs with the game tied at 3-all in the sixth to lead SCU to a 5-3 victory.
- The Broncos also swept the Toreros last season and have won seven straight games against them.

WCC Schedule:

- This is the third year in a row that the WCC schedule will have a different number of games played. This season, it's an 18-game WCC schedule made up of six three-game series with the addition of league newcomer Seattle U. In 2025, the WCC returned to the traditional 15-game league slate with the addition of Oregon State to make it a six team league, a year after the departure of BYU from the conference. In 2024, with the league down to five members, each team played a 16-game schedule comprised of four four-game series.

West Coast Conference Series Streak:

- The Broncos have not lost their last 11 WCC series, winning 10 of them and tying one, dating back to 2024. They won the LMU, Oregon State and USD series this season and won all five conference series in 2025. In 2024, when the WCC series were four games, they closed out the season winning two of the last three series, splitting the last one against San Diego. The last time they lost a WCC series was against LMU (April 19-21, 2024).

West Coast Conference Weekly Honors:

- Three Broncos have garnered WCC weekly recognitions this season. The latest being Leiora Davidson who was named WCC Co-Player of the Week on March 30 along with Hannah Ferguson from Saint Mary's.
- Cari Ferguson and Ellison Schroeder were named WCC Pitcher of the Week on back-to-back weeks on March 2 and March 9.
