Series Notes

- Santa Clara wraps up its five-game home stand the same way it started it -- with a weekday matchup versus crosstown rival San Jose State on Monday night.
- The teams have met twice already this season, both times at Stephen Schott Stadium. The Broncos won the first meeting, 8-6, on Feb. 18, and the Spartans took last week's contest, 18-6, in seven innings.
- Santa Clara and San Jose State have split their last 10 meetings dating to 2022. Seven of those 10 games have been decided by three runs or fewer. The Broncos are 4-3 in games played at Schott Stadium during that stretch.
- The Spartans have lost seven of their 11 road games this season, including an 8-6 defeat at Santa Clara on Feb. 18. Meanwhile, 11 of the Broncos' 12 wins have come at home with an 11-6 record and wins in seven of their last nine home games.

Season Notes

- LAST TIME OUT: Santa Clara swept LMU in a West Coast Conference series at Stephen Schott Stadium over the weekend, outscoring the Lions 31-9 across the three games. Friday's opener was a statement: Max Bayles struck out 10 in 6 1/3 innings, Waylon Walsh hit the first home run of his career, and the Broncos erupted for 11 runs in the second inning alone in a 17-2 run-rule win. Saturday's 4-2 series-clincher featured four home runs — solo shots from Tate Medicoff, Mateo Garcia and Walsh — and crisp defense capped by a game-ending double play. Sunday, Medicoff led a comeback with three hits and three RBIs in a 10-5 victory that completed the Broncos' first sweep of LMU since 2018.
- Santa Clara's 31 total runs scored over the weekend against LMU are the most it's scored in a three-game series against the Lions since May 28-30, 2010, when it scored 38 in three games in Los Angeles. That included a 22-13 win in the series finale. It's the most runs Santa Clara has scored in a weekend series of any length (three or four games) since Feb. 23-25, 2024, when it scored 34 in three games versus UMBC at Schott Stadium.
- The freshmen pitchers in the Broncos' bullpen are already making an impact through the season's first six weeks. Jackson Cook has entrenched himself into the weekend rotation in his first seven weeks of college baseball, already making seven starts and holding opponents to a .254 average. Trevor Banning, Nick Chow, Cook, Tate Gargas, Max Reimers and Chase Ruden have combined to go 3-1 with a 4.61 ERA and record 52 total strikeouts while holding opponents to a .206 batting average against.

2026 Santa Clara University BRONCOS BASEBALL

Season Notes

• Sophomore designated hitter Tate Medicoff has been on a tear in his last 13 games. The sophomore DH is batting .452 (19 for 42) and slugging 1.024 with 13 extra-base hits since March 8. He has seven multi-hit games during that stretch. Of the 71 total RBIs the team has collected in those 13 games, he has 20 of them. It's a complete reversal after he started the season batting .087 (2 for 23) with 14 strikeouts.

• Santa Clara is already back to its come-from-behind ways seven weeks into this season after spending the last two years as "comeback kids." The Broncos already have five come-from-behind wins and have erased 16 total deficits in 2026.

The team totaled 26 come-from-behind wins in 2024 and '25. More than half of Santa Clara's wins in 2025 (13) were of the "come-from-behind" variety. The Broncos were also "comeback kids" in 2024, earning half of their 26 wins (13) in come-from-behind fashion. Santa Clara erased 23 different deficits during the 2024 campaign at any given point in a game. It erased 27 different deficits in 2025.

• Ben Cleary has continued to reach base safely in every game he's played this season. Cleary extended his reached base streak to 25 games over the weekend, reaching in all three games versus LMU. He's reached in all 24 games he's played this season, as well as the last game of the 2025 campaign.

• Junior right-handed pitcher Max Bayles earned his second Rawlings WCC Pitcher of the Week award of 2026 on March 9 after an outstanding performance on the road last week at top-15-ranked and SEC member Oklahoma. Bayles anchored Santa Clara's impressive pitching performance Thursday with a season-high 10 strikeouts in four shutout innings on the road at No. 10/14 Oklahoma. Bayles silenced the Sooners, who entered the night hitting .313 and slugging .534 as a team, with four strikeouts to start the game and multiple Ks in all four of his frames, including striking out three in both the first and fourth innings.

• Senior infielder Thomas Ferroggiaro and Bayles earned the first WCC Rawlings Player and Pitcher of the Week awards of the season on Feb. 16 after leading the Broncos through their first three games of the season on the road at California.

Ferroggiaro reached base nine times, scored six runs and stole two bases with two multi-hit performances in three games in Berkeley, Calif., over the weekend. He reached base four times on Friday, going 2 for 3 with two walks and scoring three runs. He went 3 for 4 in game one of Saturday's doubleheader with another walk, two runs scored, and a career-high-tying two stolen bases. He extended his active hitting streak to seven games -- a carryover of his four-game streak to end the 2025 season -- with a double and run scored in Saturday's doubleheader nightcap. Bayles threw four shutout innings with five strikeouts on the road Friday, earning the victory and leading Santa Clara to a blowout, 13-2, run-rule win. Bayles only allowed one runner to reach third base and only two others past first in his four innings of work.

• Santa Clara earned its first series sweep of the season three weekends ago, beating visiting Utah Tech in three straight. Pitching largely dominated for the Broncos, as the staff posted a 1.61 ERA and averaged a strikeout per inning in the series. Max Bayles earned his second win of the year with a quality start in Friday's opener, striking out nine and only allowing two hits in six innings for an 8-1 win. Jace Gillmore threw another quality start for the Broncos on Saturday with six shutout innings of one-hit ball, leading SCU to a 4-1 victory. A pair of true freshmen won it for the Broncos on Sunday, as Hunter Fujimoto singled in the bottom of the ninth and Waylon Walsh hit a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the 10th for a 5-4 walk-off victory.

• Santa Clara had 12 players play professional baseball in 2025, including Tommy Nance (at Santa Clara in 2012-13), who posted a 1.99 ERA in 30 relief appearances for the AL champion Toronto Blue Jays, and Steven Wilson ('18), who made 59 appearances for the Chicago White Sox and carried a 3.42 ERA.

• Santa Clara returns 24 letterwinners -- including seven positional starters and three starting pitchers -- in 2026. The returners include all-West Coast Conference second team honoree Max Bayles and all-WCC Honorable Mentions Ben Cleary and Cooper Lanz. The Broncos return no less than 65% of every offensive statistical category from last season, and they bring back at least 60% if not more of every pitching stat category outside of saves, where only four of 11 saves last year return.

Season Notes

• The Broncos also welcome 16 newcomers to the roster in 2026, composed of five transfers (four four-year college transfers, one junior college transfer) and 11 true freshmen. 10 of the 11 freshmen are from California, with six of those from Northern California, and even four of those come specifically from the South Bay and Santa Clara County. Three of the five transfers (Will Anderson, James Bose, Bryant Viskovich) also have South Bay roots.

• Max Bayles raked in the preseason honors heading into the 2026 season. He was named to the Perfect Game West Coast Conference Preseason Team, then was named the WCC Preseason Pitcher of the Year by D1Baseball.com. He also landed on the official WCC Preseason Team, as voted on by the league's coaches. He was ranked the top 2026 MLB Draft Prospect in the WCC by D1Baseball.com after spending time this summer in both the Cape Cod League and at the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team training camp

• Santa Clara won 20 games in 2025, marking its fourth consecutive 20-or-more wins season, the first time the Broncos have done that in 17 years. The Broncos posted back-to-back .500-or-better seasons for the first time in 18 years in 2023 and '24, and made the postseason in back-to-back seasons for the first time in 27 years in 2023 and '24.

• Senior right-handed pitcher Cooper Lanz was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Preseason "Stopper of the Year" Watch List on Feb. 10. Lanz, who joined the Broncos in 2025 after previous stops at Pacific and Modesto Junior College, earned all-WCC Honorable Mention recognition in his first season at Santa Clara after appearing in 13 games and moving into the starting rotation late in the year. He led the team with four wins and posted a 3.75 ERA across 36 innings pitched, striking out 28 while holding opponents to a team-best .148 batting average. Lanz went 4-1 against WCC opponents with a 2.92 ERA and a .132 opponent batting average in 24 2/3 innings.
