Titan Talk

- As UW-Oshkosh welcomes UW-Stevens Point to J. J. Keller Field at Titan Stadium on Saturday, the Titans celebrate the 10th anniversary of the 2015 WIAC Championship team.
- The ninth conference championship in program history, Oshkosh went 7-0 in league play and 11-2 overall. The Titans opened their home schedule with an 86-0 win over Finlandia University (Mich.) and won each of their WIAC contests by an average of 29.3 points including a 69-14 score at UW-Stout and a 57-12 score against UW-River Falls. During the NCAA Division III Championship, Oshkosh played all three of its games at home, beating The College of St. Scholastica (Minn.), 48-0, on November 21 and Ohio Northern University, 42-7, on November 28. Oshkosh hosted UW-Whitewater for the second time on December 5, and fell two points short of a 14-point fourth quarter comeback in the quarterfinal round.
- The Titans are 52-61-8 all-time against the Pointers and have won 12 of the last 13 matchups including five straight.
