Titan Talk
UW-Oshkosh host Hamline University at Kolf Sports Center on Thursday in its third home meet in as many weeks.
Last week, the Titans hosted UW-Whitewater in a WIAC dual. It the tightly contested battle between two of the top three programs in the National Collegiate Gymnastics Association, they prevailed by a score of 191.950-191.775. Oshkosh won the vault (48.400-48.275), uneven bars (48.500-48.425) and floor exercise (48.700-47.850) while the Warhawks owned a 47.225-46.350 edge on the balance beam.
Averie Evans finished the uneven bars in a three-way tie for first place with 9.750 points. Lydia Hayden and Ome Ellis claimed sole possession of first place on the balance beam and floor exercise with respective scores of 9.750 and 9.800.
