

Sept. 24, 79

THE COLLEGIAN

S. BALE

H O M E C O M I N G   W E E K E N DFriday, Sept. 28

	Student Aid Payday	Dean's Office
11:00 a.m.	Meeting with Associates and Presidential Candidate Mr. J. Burchenal Ault
1:30 p.m.	Meeting with Staff and Presidential Candidate Mr. J. Burchenal Ault	McDowell 21
2:30 p.m.	Meeting with Instruction Committee and Presidential Candidate Mr. J. Burchenal Ault	McDowell 21
3:30 p.m.	Meeting with the Faculty and Presidential Candidate Mr. J. Burchenal Ault	McDowell 24
8:15 p.m.	LECTURE: "Tolstoy and History: A Look at the Theorizing in War and Peace" Mr. Jacques Barzun, Charles Scribner's Sons	FSK Auditorium

Saturday, Sept. 29

8:15 p.m.	Film: Shoot The Piano Player (free)	FSK Auditorium
-----------	--	----------------

The September issue of The Reporter is now available in the CB-House, 2nd floor

Tickets for the HT, Ltd Fashion Show scheduled for October 12th, in the FSK Auditorium are on sale for $5.00 in the College Bookstore until 9/25/79

LOST AND FOUND

Books:.

French Dictionary
Less Than Kin
Optiks
A Man For All Seasons
Hippolytus
Public Relations Handbook
The Hiding Place

GLASSES - 8 PAIR!
MAKE-UP KIT
STAPLES
2 RIPES
1 YELLOW COMB
1 BANG & OLUFSEN -- 4 CHANNEL CARTRIDGE
2 UMBRELLAS
1 LEATHER WATCHBAND
1 STOPWATCH
1 SET OF KEYS
3 NECKLACES
2 WATCHES

These items may be claimed in the Assistant Dean's Office.

ABOUT THE MUSIC LIBRARY

The Music Library will be open Monday through Friday 12:15 to 5:00 P.M.
Tuesday and Wednesday evenings 7:00 to 10:00 P.M.
Saturday and Sunday 1:00 to 5:00 P.M.

Elizabeth Bolotin
Music Librarian

ABOUT THIS ISSUE OF THE COLLEGIAN

Most of the preparation of THE COLLEGIAN is now done during the week, whereas it used to be done on the weekends. Changing operations to the weekdays has not been easy, and has resulted in the delay in publication of the paper. We are sorry for this inconvenience. From now on, we expect to publish the COLLEGIAN every Sunday.

Any submission that has been omitted or shortened was the victim of our deadline; corrections will be made in our next issue.

- The Editor

THE COLLEGIAN

THE STUDENT WEEKLY OF ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE

With this issue, THE COLLEGIAN begins its 10th year of publication. The aims of the paper now are the same as they were at the paper's beginning: 1) to provide a place for writing by members of the community, and 2) to serve as St. John's newspaper. To achieve these aims, THE COLLEGIAN has always relied on volunteers. Consequently, the paper is a reflection of the community's active interest in its own writing and news.

This year, the College has kindly offered to take on the job of printing and assembling the paper. In past years these tasks had to be performed by students, so it considerably lightens the load of the staff to be relieved of these production jobs. Accordingly, much more effort can be given to editing. THE COLLEGIAN, however, will still rely on St. Johnnies to supply the content of the paper. All students and tutors are encouraged to submit any work which they consider suitable for publication.

In order to print and assemble the paper, the College print shop must receive THE COLLEGIAN final copy by Friday noon. The deadline for submissions, then, is Wednesday in campus mail (allowing Thursday for editing and copy preparation). All submissions received after Wednesday will be held for the next issue unless arrangements are made with the editor. Furthermore, since the paper is put together on Thursday, it is hoped that most writers will submit before Wednesday because it will be impossible to prepare more than a handful of Wednesday submissions.

All submissions must be legible and must include the signature of the author. Those interested in typing their own submissions should contact the editor so that a COLLEGIAN typewriter can be made available for their use.

THE COLLEGIAN is essentially the property of the St. John's community. No student has more than a few hours to devote to working for the paper, so the paper requires the assistance of many. If you can help, please do; if you cannot help, please remember that those who are working for the paper are doing the best they can.

We look forward to a good year. See you Sundays.

- THE COLLEGIAN Staff
(the usual gang of irregulars)

ON THE COVER:

"Is Doc Dead?" The story of the 1980 Presidential race (see pp. 7-9)

NEXT WEEK:

The Best and Worst of Annapolis # 2

It used to be that St. John's students were provided with a space on the registration form where they might indicate a church preference, if any. There was nothing obligatory about it. In this way a clergyman of a local church could obtain from the registrar a list of those interested students who might be of whatever denomination that church belonged to. About eight or nine years ago this provision was dropped.

Since it is not possible to obtain a list in this way, I am using this space to invite any Episcopal students who would care to, to let me have their names, either by putting a note in the college mail, or by telephoning me at 263-9014.

Winfree Smith

NO SCHOOL GYNECOLOGIST

Contrary to earlier announcements there is not a school gynecologist. As you may know, Dr. Berkowitz was the school gynecologist last year and had planned to return this year. However, his professional organization has requested that serve on one of their boards, so he felt it necessary to cut back on his voluntary services. So at present we have no no gynecological services.

The Health Service

↓ POST NEAR EVERY PHONE! ↓

Harrison Health Center 1979-1980
A nurse is available at the Health Center during the following walk-in times: 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon MTWThF
3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. MTWThF

I am usually in my office 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and can see you then, too. Only emergencies will be seen at other times. If you need a nurse after office hours please call ext. 53 before coming to the Health Center as the door will be locked. If there is no answer call the switchboard and the switchboard operator will locate the nurse.

Marilyn Mylander

LOST

Several boxes that I put in the Senior storage room (Mellon 104) at the beginning of the summer disappeared before I could pick them up. If you took them by mistake please contact me. Thank you.

submitted by
Ned Elliott

WANTED: EDITORIAL APPRENTICE

I am looking for a student, preferably a sophomore, to work as editorial apprentice eventually, if he proves capable, as editorial assistant, of The College. He should know punctuation, spelling; the job will consist of preparing copy for the printer, reading proof, running errands, checking facts and eventually editing articles. It will take something between two to five hours a week and on hard weeks as much as twenty to thirty hours. The chief characteristic of the demand on time is that it is uneven. For the period of apprenticeship (six months to a year) pay will be an honorarium of something like two dollars an hour. After that, pay will be the usual hourly wage for campus employment.

Leo Raditsa

BILLINGS METHOD OFFERED AGAIN.

An Introductory Presentation of the Billings Ovulation Method of Natural Family Planning will be presented in a two-hour, free public lecture on Wednesday, Oct. 3rd at 4:30 P.M. A class for those wishing to learn the details of the Method will form Wednesday, October 10th at 4:30. See next weeks "Collegian" for information about the location.

Lynn Carol Smith

KING

WILLIAM

PLAYERS

The KWP is responding to the times. Last year great energy and spirit was shown by the many members of the community who joined together for the sake of drama. This year that interest seems even stronger, so we are changing our coat for a new and brighter one. In two weeks, on Saturday morning Sept. 29 at 10 am., there will be a meeting to map out a season of plays for the entire year. This will allow us to have a balanced calendar suited to the interests of the community, and let us move into each performance with a view towards the next. This should help us to create enough inertia to make this year full of exciting dramatic events. But to do this we need everyone's contribution. If you are a student, tutor, anyone with a serious interest in drama, you should come to this meeting. We discuss every relevant play suggested and we will stay together in room 24 of McDowell until we have come to a consensus agreement on this year's plays, directors, and set designers. So be prepared to stay for as long as is necessary. Once again, all those seriously interested in drama (you do not have to be a KWP member) should come to room 34 of McDowell on Saturday Sept. 29 at 10 am.

submitted by
Ned Elliott
for the KWP

SQUARE PEGS

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21404
FOUNDED 1696 AS KING WILLIAM'S SCHOOL

Lecture

This week's lecturer is:

JACQUES BARZUN

Jacques Barzun, widely known as a scholar, teacher, and author, was born in Creteil, France on November 30, 1907. He spent his youth in Paris, where he received his early education. In 1920 he came to the United States with his father, who had come during the war on a diplomatic mission. In 1923 Mr. Barzun entered Columbia College and graduated at the head of his class in 1927. That same year an appointment as a lecturer in history at Columbia began his career as a teacher. By 1945 he had become a full professor, his special field being the cultural history of the modern period.

In 1955 he was named Dean of the Graduate Faculties of Columbia University, and in July 1958 inaugurated the new post of Dean of Faculties and Provost of the University. In 1960 he was named Seth Low Professor of History and in 1961 received an appointment as Extraordinary Fellow at Churchill College, University of Cambridge. These appointments were concurrent with his teaching and administrative duties at Columbia. On June 30, 1967, Mr. Barzun resigned his administrative duties and was named University Professor (the highest honor accorded by the University to no more than three men at one time) and Special Adviser on the Arts to the President. During this time he offered two courses in his field of cultural history. Mr. Barzun held these positions until his retirement from the University in the spring of 1975. At present Mr. Barzun is Literary Adviser at Scribners.

Mr. Barzun is a member of the following organizations: American Historical Association, National Institute of Arts and Letters (President, 1972-75, and 1976-79, following the merger of the Institute with the American Academy of Arts and Letters), American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, and corresponding member of the Massachusetts Historical Society and the Academie Delphinale, Grenoble. Mr. Barzun is a director of: Council for Basic Education (Washington); Open Court Publishing Co. (Illinois); Peabody Institute of Music and Art (Baltimore). He is a member of the following clubs: The Century (New York), Author's Club; The Athenaeum (London). He is married and lives in New York.

SPECIAL

THE 1980 RACE

The President

by Hugh Kidding

He goes for long walks on the beaches at his Annapolis home — "the eastern White House." Sometimes a child will run up to him and ask him for a quarter. "I'm sorry," he'll say, "I save all of my money for the College."

* * *

No man loves this College as this man does. For 31 years he has been its President. But now he is retiring. Why?

Commentators say he has been hounded from office by a variety of circumstances. First, there was the incident with the President's brother Billy, who when escorting visiting technocrats from M.I.T. said, "Greek is for the iguanas." Then there is the problem with Amy Clark Weigle, his daughter, who refuses to go to Santa Fe. "Where am I going to build a tree house out there?" she complains. And, of course, his sister Ruth Stapleton Weigle, a born-again sophist, has been a constant embarrassment.

Rosalyn Weigle, her husband's constant supporter through out his career, immediately comes to his defense. "Dicky should stay in there — after all, we need the money. You know, at his other job he was only making peanuts." But she quickly adds, "If he wants to pull out, I'll just get back my job at The Little Campus."

* * *

When in Santa Fe — at the "western White House" — he'll go for long walks in the mountains. Seeing a child at play, he'll ask, "Do you hope to go to college, young man?" "Yes," the boy will answer. "Well, then, you should know that St. John's College will take anybody...." At heart, he will always be the President of St. John's.

"No, no, no. I will not do it anymore. That's it — it's over. No, don't ask. Please stop it — I'm finished, I'm done with it. My answer is absolutely, 'No, no, no.'"

With this, President Richard "Dick" Weigle added phlogiston to the fire of rumors that he will not run in the 1980 Presidential campaign. These fires have ignited the hopes of some to run for the office; for others, the burning desire has always been there. Soon it is to be expected that the campus will be enflamed with the heat of the race. Indeed, the Presidential campaign has always been a test of fire. Already one candidate has withdrawn, having suffered third-degree burns.

The first big step of the campaign is the New Hampshire primary. Since only two voting members of the Bored come from New Hampshire the campaigning is very intense. But the primary is looked upon as being a significant event. As

The Dean

He's from a wealthy, New England family of Catholic heritage. He went to Harvard, and then became one of St. John's youngest Deans. Despite the fact that he has not declared his candidacy, he is clearly the favorite in this campaign.

This is not the first time that Eddy Sparrow has not run for the Presidency. Both in 1972 and 1976 he ran major non-campaigns. But this is his biggest non-campaign yet: he has travelled over 30,000 miles to announce his plans not to run for office.

It is hard to trace the root of Sparrow's popularity. Some say it is due to his waltzing ability; others point to his charming use of French. Most one of the candidates top official's aide's assistant put it, "New Hampshire is certainly a significant event. We look on it as very significant, perhaps even as most significant. And that, in itself, is, I think, quite significant."

The issues in the campaign are complicated. One of the candidates claims he's "for the students." An opponent asserts he's "for the tutors." A third says he's "for the Administration." And yet another complains, "There's nobody left to be 'for'."

A crucial step in the campaign is the interview with the Bored of Visiting Governors. Candidates are asked such questions as, "If you died and were born again, who would you be?" and "Have you seen my umbrella?"

A problem in the campaign is voter apathy. When asked about which party he preferred agree, though, that Sparrow's promise to "make everybody happier in every way possible" is a decisive influence.

Of course, even for the front-runner there are some difficulties. Some people still question the incident on College creek ten years ago. "So what about it," retorts Sparrow, "so the canoe sunk. It was dark and we didn't see the bridge. That doesn't mean anything."

And what of his mother? Has she given him permission to run for the Presidency? "Are you kidding? She does not even know that I'm the Dean," Sparrow chuckled.

Others worry that the Pope would run a Sparrow Presidency. Sparrow scoffs at this, as does his prospective running mate, Brother Robert. "Why, the Pope never even heard of St. John's."

No problem seems big enough to stop Sparrow, however, especially now that his interest in the Presidency has increased. "Sometimes I think being and not-being the President are the same thing," he noted in a statement that only a St. Johnnie could get away with.

a student responded, "Where's the other party?" A second interrupted, "Arn't you concerned? There is no party - not enough money."

The main difficulty for the candidates, however, is how to handle the Fund for the 1980's. So far $ 11,000,000 has been raised; $ 14,000,000 is still needed. With one year left in the campaign, most observers figure the new president has "no chance in hell" to meet the Fund goal.

Fortunately, there are some attractions to the office:

- ▶ Use of Avis One, the College car, to shuttle back and forth between the campuses;
- ▶ An infinite supply of coffee and cookies;
- ▶ The chance to live in two tourist towns.

Who will the next President be? The field right now is wide open; any man with that something extra might show up out of no where and sweep the field...especially if that something extra is $ 14,000,000.

The following are other candidates in the race for the Presidency:

LEO RADITSA - Raditsa compares his campaign to the French Revolution. "You know, it's kind of interesting...think of monarchy and Bolivar...." Raditsa has received the full support of The College Magazine.

DAVID STEPHENSON - Asked about his plans, Stephenson replied, "Running? Why, yes...ah, I mean, I was running yesterday...but what kind of running do you mean?" "Arf," said Bill, his campaign advisor.

WILLIAM O'GRADY - O'Grady took a year off from teaching in order to organize his campaign. "Yes, I think the presidency is a wonderful job, and I think it's a wonderful school, and I am not sure that I would make the best President, but let me read you something here that I wrote...."

HOWARD ZEIDERMAN - Zeiderman said he would take the job if he can "reconcile it with time and space." He made headlines last year when he flew to Berlin with Linda Rondstat. His biggest drawback so far has been his inability to come up with a slogan under 50 words in length.

BARBARA LEONARD - "I'm not a token," declares Leonard, who is also not black or Spanish. Often compared to Jane "Babs" Fonda, Leonard's opposition to nuclear power on campus is both endearing and unfounded. She considers herself well-trained for the job. "There are plenty of seats down front," she noted.

FRESHMAN CLASS - SEPTEMBER 1979

Mr. Merrill Marshall Ahrens
Evergreen Park, Illinois

Mr. Allen Jack Armstrong
Fort Worth, Texas

Mr. James Earl Bailey, Jr.
Tuscaloosa, AL

Miss Chris Ann Baker
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Miss Kathleen Therese Bergren
Ocean City, New Jersey

Miss Cathy Jean Berry
Flushing, New York

Mr. Scott Chambers Boyd
Rockville, Maryland

Miss Anne Lawson Braswell
Hendersonville, North Carolina

Miss Stephanie Angela Breit
Walla Walla, Washington

Miss Dorothea Nelle Burrow
Memphis, Tennessee

Mr. Richard Sean Cahall
Beltsville, Maryland

Mr. David Metcalfe Carnes
Joplin, Missouri

Miss Virginia Marie Casasco
Annapolis, Maryland

Mr. James Philip Cass
Shaker Heights, Ohio

Miss Paula Joyce Cole
Middletown, New Jersey

Miss Jeanne Marie Connors
Sayville, New York

Miss Evelyn Louise Jacqueline Cronin
New Braintree, Massachusetts

Mr. Christopher John Daly
Baltimore, Maryland

Miss Laura Ann DeRocher
Fairfax, Virginia

Mr. Jonathan Antonio Edelman
Northampton, Massachusetts

Mr. Robert Moore Ewing
Frankfort, Illinois

Mr. Daniel James Farrell
Spotsylvania, Virginia

Miss Kathleen Rose Farrell
Strawberry Point, Iowa

Miss Lisa Michelle Ferrington
Boonsboro, Maryland

Miss Mary Kathleen Flinders
Coralville, Iowa

Mr. John William Fritsch
Belleville, Illinois

Mr. Craig Thomas Gallagher
Poughkeepsie, New York

Mr. William John Gavula
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Mr. Andrew Georg Gazis
Millwood, New York

Mr. Joel Brian Glanzberg
Ambler, Pennsylvania

Mr. Marc Edmond Gordon
Bethesda, Maryland

Miss Sandra Elaine Greve
Winter Haven, Florida

Mr. David George Halsted
Traverse City, Michigan

Miss Marah Beth Heimbach
Monroe, New York

Mr. Michael Sheridan Henry
Voorhees Township, New Jersey

Mr. Howard Jerome Hergenrother
Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Mr. Brian F. Hershkowitz
Brooklyn, New York

Mr. Daniel Greeley Higgins, III
Malden, Massachusetts

Mr. William King Hill
Fruitland Park, Florida

Miss Mildred Ives Hillstrom
Rockville, Maryland

Mr. Kenneth Charles Hiltner
Mt. Laurel, New Jersey

Mr. Robert Foster Hoff
Bergen, Norway

Miss Susan Evelyn Holm
Annadale, Virginia

Mr. Troy Von Hongsermeier
Seal Beach, California

Miss Catherine Quincie Hopkins
Bel Air, Maryland

Mr. Mark Richard Huml
Barrington, Illinois

Mr. Christopher David Junker
Wheaton, Maryland

Mr. Albert Kaloust Kapikian
Rockville, Maryland

Mr. Stuart Max Kaufman
Whitestone, New York

Miss Unyong Kim
Arlington, Virginia

Miss Angelina Cornelia Kline
Baltimore, Maryland

Miss Malissa Cox Kullberg
Evanston, Illinois

Mr. John James Lear
Naperville, Illinois

Mr. Leland George LeCuyer
New York, New York

Miss Cheryl Beth Leitner
Signal Mountain, Tennessee

Miss Deborah Ann Lutterbeck
Chicago, Illinois

Miss Christine Malinowski
Cleveland, Ohio

Mr. Hugh Mappin
Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Miss Lucy Ellen Mayeux
Alexandria, Virginia

Miss Molly McDaniel
Lynchburg, Virginia

Miss Jennifer Lynn Miller
Gainesville, Florida

Mr. Peter Blaze Miller
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Mr. Richard Earl Miller
Winter Park, Florida

Mr. Darrel Frank Moellendorf
Pierre, South Dakota

Miss Laureen O'Donnell
Kemblesville, Pennsylvania

Miss Katherine Elizabeth O'Malley
Sarasota, Florida

Miss Alison Scot Oxford
St. Augustine, Florida

Mr. Joshua Stephen Parens
Wynnewood, Pennsylvania

Mr. George Andrew Parker
Providence, Rhode Island

Miss Kimber Kay Paschall
Tallahassee, Florida

Mr. George Clifford Reese, III
Greenville, Pennsylvania

Miss Madeline Rhum
Westfield, New Jersey

Miss Laurie Anne Richardson
Holbrook, Massachusetts

Mr. James Alan Rolle
Chappaqua, New York

Mr. John Leonard Ryan
Alexandria, Virginia

Miss Deborah Ruth Sack
Newington, Connecticut

Mr. Brian David Shields
Denton, Texas

Mr. John Stephen Shock
Baltimore, Maryland

Miss Ann Walton Sieber
Houston, Texas

Miss Ruthann Helen Siegel
Nanuet, New York

Mr. Vik Matthew Slen
St. Paul, Minnesota

Miss Laurie Leigh Stahl
Rockville, Maryland

Mr. Thomas Daniel Michael Sullivan
Alexandria, Virginia

Miss Athena Thorsa Swentzell
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Miss Claire MacLean Talley
Rochester, New York

Mr. Benjamin Warfield Tamlyn
New York, New York

Miss Ann Eleanor Tive
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Mr. Danny Tonso
Indialantic, Florida

Mr. Christopher Anthony Toth
Orlando, Florida

Mr. John Bartholomew Tracey, III
Brockton, Massachusetts

Mr. Kevin Matthew Tracy
Kirkland, Washington

Miss Rachael Jessica Valentine
Washington, D.C.

Miss Katherine Mac Gregor Walker
Glendale, California

Mr. Jeffrey Donald Wall
Muncy, Pennsylvania

Miss Cynthia Marie Walton
Columbia, South Carolina

Miss Melissa Gaye Warren
Orlando, Florida

Miss Emily Andrea Wasserman
Larchmont, New York

Mr. Eric William Weinstein
Owings Mills, Maryland

Mr. David St. John Weitzel
Carlisle, Pennsylvania

Miss Lucy Brasfield Welch
Prospect, Kentucky

Miss Jeanne Wick
Miami, Florida

Mr. William Gordon Wilson
Lakewood, Colorado

Miss Sherry Ilene Windt
Silver Spring, Maryland

Mr. Charles Crane Wright
Austin, Minnesota

Mr. Mark Leland Youngblood
Highland, Maryland

Mr. Theodore Schlup Zenzinger
Williamsport, Pennsylvania

One tree in my window,
One root in the earth,
An observer is mistified
By dancers from the sun.
Who illuminate this panorama.
Outside my window...There is a tree,
But who can see its roots?

ON AN ISLAND

To escape love,
To leave emotion,
This way lives in the shell of death,
Cruel inhumanity disposed of all meaning in life,
Leaving utter indifference,
And this is a state of waiting,
Waiting for what?

Pain is felt alone,
Against the earthen wall of a noncaring world,
I which cries for help die,
Before they reach ears that listen...

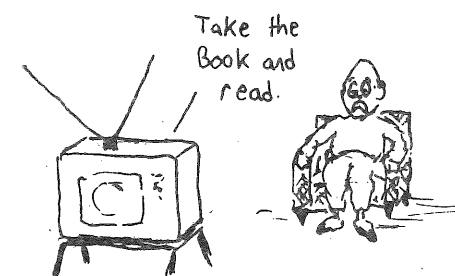

Sincerity is the one hope,
Reaching out to ease the pain of others,
For touching another
Is to regain love
And hope...

-David Hershel Weinstein

BIBLE STUDY

Why go to Bible Study? As you may have realized, two or three seminars is insufficient time to do an indepth study of any work, especially one as important as the Bible. The opportunity to leisurely discuss a few verses (usually about ten) is a welcome relief from trying to comprehend eighty pages at a time. When does it meet? The meetings are at 7:30 PM Tuesday nights and usually run about 1½ hours. Where does it meet? At the Baptist Student Union, 23 State Circle. What is the reading? As of now we are working our way through the Gospel according to St. Mark. Look at Chapter 10 for next Tuesday. What about further questions? Talk to me, Sam; I live in 206 Campbell, ext. 29, or Tisha McLaughlin, 104 Humphries, ext. 33. Better still, stop by next Tuesday and check it out for yourself.

submitted by
Sam McMahon

From the Placement Office

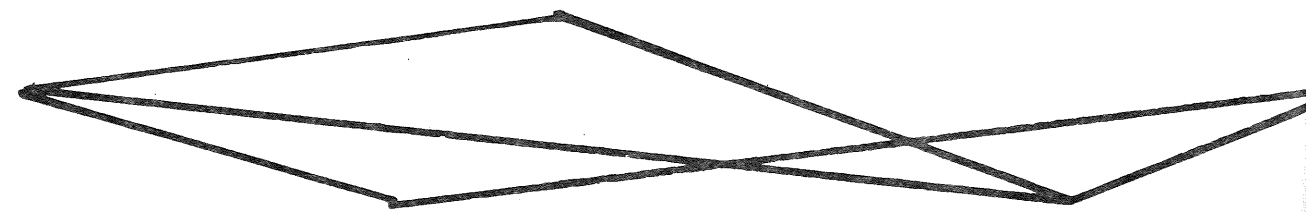

Sophomores: Sophomores who "...have an outstanding potential for leadership in government..."; may be eligible for this generous scholarship. Come to the placement office for details.

The Newspaper Fund, Inc. offers an editing internship program for College juniors only. This is a paid internship, with major daily newspapers or wire service for a full summer. I have request forms for the application. The deadline for complete applications is Nov. 22, 1979.

All Students: Please plan to attend the discussion of careers held on Saturday, Sept. 29 at 1:00 in McDowell 21. A group of alumni will be here to answer questions on a variety of careers.

Seniors - The members of the Fellowship Committee are: Nicholas Maistrellis, Chas. Brother Robert Smith, Gisela Berns, Barbara Leonard, Dean Sparrow and Marianne Braun. If there are questions about fellowships, please ask one of these committee members, or come to the Placement Office.

Marianne Braun
Director of Placement

St. Johnnies opposed to nuclear power:

If we could all get together at once, several good things could happen. First, we could get a sense of how large a group of people here share our feelings on this subject. We could exchange ideas about what we'd like to see going on here. My hope is that some of us would decide to form a group at the college to work together on this issue.

There will be a meeting on Sunday, the 30th of September, in McDowell Hall, Room 24, at 8 p.m., to which one or some members of the local anti-nuke group will come, so that we can learn about what they are doing. If you have any interest at all in seeing nuclear power stopped, please come. If you can't be there and would like to make contact, you can reach me, Lucy Oppenheim, through the campus mail.

The Student Employment Office is now open for business. We'll be in 213 Mellon at the following times:

Mon. 10:30 - 7
Tues. 8 - 6
Wed. 10:15 - 4:00
Thurs. 10:30 - 4:00
Fri. 9 - 2, 3:15 - 4:15
Sat. 10 - 2

If you haven't registered with us and would like to, let us know - we'll be glad to give you a form. If you've already registered and we've offered you some jobs, please, PLEASE, let us know whether you've taken them. Ignorance is not bliss. We can only do our job properly if you do your part. So send a note through Campus Mail or call us at ext. 62. Thanks!

submitted by
B.J. Sisson for S.E.

SPORTS

WOMEN'S SPORTS

Amazons - 1, D.C.'s - 0

The bulk of experienced Amazon strength was greatly reduced by last year's graduation, so they must be hoping for some freshman talent.

In this game, though, Miss Cobb kept the spirit going with help from Miss Murphy, Miss Nogales, and Miss Oreskes. Playing with only eight on the team put great emphasis on each member's part; however, Miss Cobb was only able to find one opportunity to get passed the D.C. goalie for a goal. The sheer number of D.C.'s should have prevented this, or allowed them at least one goal to tie, but I suppose they need to play together for a while.

Maenads - 4, Nymphs - 5

This was quite an exciting game, what with the almost continuous scoring of Miss Krafft for the Nymphs (with the fifth by their new talent from Santa Fe, Miss Gina Ironside) and the down-pour of rain.

Miss Kurs played an exceptional game as the Nymph goalie, with some nice saves on penalty kicks. Miss Groff put one passed her though, and during the same quarter managed to get a well-placed shot in for a second goal. Miss Dornick was the first to score for the Maenads, and with two goals in the third quarter by Miss Groff, managed 3 to the Nymph score of 5. However, the 4th quarter brought one final goal for the Maenads when Nymph Barham accidentally kicked one in through her own goal.

D.C.'s - 0, Maenads - 6

I didn't see this game because of my birthday, but I hear it quickly turned in favor of the Maenads, with three goals early on. Obviously, the D.C.'s never recovered. Of course their game was hampered by a lack of players, but by the showing in their first game it is apparent that they have no dearth of members - just players. Hopefully by their next game they'll be able to muster up some support.

- Beth Gordon

MEN'S SPORTS by Bryce Jacobsen

Tennis Alert: Our annual tournament will soon start. You must sign up (in the basement of McDowell) by Monday, Sept. 24

Football: Hustlers-26, Guardians-0
Spartans-7, Druids-0
Guardians-34, Waves-14
Hustlers-0, Spartans-0

There were a few highlights in these opening games...such as Mr. Adams two great catches for touchdowns in the Hustler victory. (It has been quite a few years since the Hustlers opened the season with a win!) ...and Mr. Giordano's scoring catch for the Spartans... and all sorts of Guardians contributing to their solid win over the Waves (especially Mr. Weinstein). The scoreless tie lacked any highlights, although there were plenty of lowlights.

