

Summer 2003 Lecture Schedule

| | | |
|---------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| May 21 | Sam Kutler | "Four Favorite Irrational Numbers: The Differences between Modern and Ancient Mathematics" |
| May 28 | Mark Sinnett | "From Measurement to Measure, From Ratio to Real Number" |
| June 4 | Robert Goldberg | On Aristotle's Politics |
| June 11 | Gary Borjesson | "'Tis a point of friendship': Hal and Falstaff in Henry IV " |
| June 18 | Jacqueline Pfeffer | "The Family in Plato's Republic and Statesman " |
| June 25 | John White and friends | A Conversation |
| July 2 | Walter Sterling | "Some More or Less Obvious Thoughts on Why One Should be Wary of Action from Principle" |
| July 9 | David Cohen, A87 | "Erotic Geometries of Time, and the Coherence of Spaces Between" |
| July 16 | John Verdi | "Conversation and Community: On the Phaedo " |

All lectures will be given on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the King William Room, with the exception of David Cohen's lecture, which will be given in the Conversation Room.