ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The Congregation is asked to stand during the Academic Procession.

INVOCATION

(Congregation standing)

HYMN from Psalm C . . . . . Old Hundredth (Congregation standing) Louis Bourgeois

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forthtell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure. Amen.

RESPONSIVE READING

(Congregation seated)

Reader: How manifold are Thy words, O Lord!
In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

People: O Lord, our God, How glorious is Thy name in all the earth!

Reader: When I behold the heavens, the work of Thy fingers,
The moon and the stars which Thou hast established;

People: What is man that Thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that Thou thinkest of him?

Reader: Yet hast Thou made him But little less than divine,
And hast crowned him with glory and honor.

People: Thou hast made him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; All things hast Thou put under his feet.

Reader: Beloved of Thee is man, Thine own creation, Fashioned in Thine image.

People: Thou has given him understanding and insight,
And hast shown him what is good and evil.

Reader: Thou has revealed unto him what is good; Thou hast given him to choose between right and wrong.

People: Thou has given him a mind, That he might use his blessings wisely.

Reader: A heart hast Thou given him, and free will, That he might consider his ways, And live according to Thy will.

People: We are mindful of all the great gifts Which Thou, O Lord, hast given us; May we use them wisely that they may not be in vain.

Reader: You have been told, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requires of you:

People: To do justly, to love mercy, And to walk humbly with your God.

| 1. Our God, our Help in ages past,Our Hope for years to come,Our shelter from the stormy blast,And our eternal Home:           | 3. A thousand ages in thy sightAre like an evening gone:Short as the watch that ends the nightBefore the rising sun. |
| 2. Before the hills in order stood,Or earth received her frame,From everlasting Thou art God,To endless years the same.        | 4. Time, like an ever rolling stream,Bears all its sons away;They fly forgotten as a dreamDies at the opening day.   |
| 5. Our God, our Help in ages pastOur Hope for years to comeBe Thou our Guard while life shall last,And our eternal Home. Amen. |  |
