

SUMMER 2009
WEDNESDAY EVENING EVENTS

June 24	Joan Silver	A Reading from Flannery O'Connor's Artificial Nigger , followed by discussion
July 1	Matthew Linck	On Aristotle's Physics and Ethics
July 8	Greg Recco	Developing Emotions: Aristotle's Rhetoric II.2-11
July 15	Marcel Widzisz	The Greatness of Early Rome According to Livy
July 22	John Verdi	Ambiguity in Art and Science
July 29	Louis Petrich	A Viewing of Kenneth Branagh's film of Shakespeare's Henry V , Followed by discussion
August 5	George Russell	On Lincoln

The movie on July 29 will be shown in the Hodson Conference Room in Mellon Hall.
All other events will be held in the Great Hall of McDowell Hall.