Skillsoft's
Global Code of Conduct Solution

Code of conduct training that inspires and empowers a culture of compliance and attracts employees, third parties, and other stakeholders to become learners

Skillsoft's new Global Code of Conduct is a customizable solution that allows every organization to optimize their code of conduct training.

> Pair cinematic-quality video content with concise instructional material to set the tone for conducting business in a legal and ethical manner.

> Communicate who you are as an organization, as well as the behaviors you require of your employees and business associates.

THE SOLUTION OFFERS:

- 27 content modules in 30+ languages that provide the knowledge and skills necessary to identify and understand the risks associated with a broad spectrum of compliance issues

- A unique, rigorous training methodology – based on neuroscience – that demonstrates how employees can properly address critical concerns and make the right decisions as they go about their work

EASY INTEGRATION

- As part of Skillsoft's broader compliance and risk mitigation portfolio, the Global Code of Conduct solution integrates with the Skillsoft Percipio Compliance learning management system, as well as other third-party platforms

UNIQUE SCALABILITY AND CUSTOMIZATION OPTIONS

ORGANIZATIONS MAY INCORPORATE:

- An introductory message from key stakeholders that helps to set the tone from the top;

- A corporate mission statement, policy language, and reporting procedure details to make the learning experience focused and in line with their unique training objectives; and

- Easy customization at a lower cost and shorter time to market because of Skillsoft's HTML-based content.
