Eviction Moratorium extended until Sept. 30, more rent relief available to tenants

CLARA HARTER
SMDP Staff Writer

Santa Monica has extended the City's Eviction Moratorium until Sept. 30, providing relief for tenants and frustration for small landlords.

The City made this decision on June 24 in order to align with the recently extended County moratorium, and to give landlords and tenants time to apply to the statewide rental assistance program, which is reported to have over $5 billion dollars in rental assistance funds available.

On June 25, Governor Newsom announced that he had reached an agreement with leaders of the state Senate and Assembly to also extend the state's moratorium to Sept. 30. Newsom additionally outlined a plan for the state's rental relief fund to cover 100 percent of back rent owed by low-income households.

The City's eviction moratorium is broader in scope than the state's, as it not only blocks evictions from non-payment of rent, but also from nuisance, unauthorized occupants/pets, and no-fault termination of tenancy. The City did not extend eviction protection for denial of entry into a unit, and that protection will expire on June 30.

Under the anticipated state moratorium extension, tenants will have until Sept 30, 2022 to pay rent that becomes due between July 1 through Sept. 30, 2021. To continue to receive eviction protection for non-payment of rent, tenants must submit a declaration to their landlord each month and pay at least 25 percent of rent due.

In order to qualify for the state's rent relief, tenants must have incurred a financial hardship due to Covid-19, demonstrate a risk of housing instability such as a past due rent notice, and have a household income that is not more than 80 percent of the Area Median Income.

The qualifying income for Santa Monica, and the rest of LA County, is $66,250 for a household of one, $75,700 for a household of two,

SMMUSD prepares for SB 98 passage and return to school in fall

BRENNON DIXSON
SMDP Staff Writer

Another year of distance learning is in the books, and with summer vacation barely starting, not many students have an eye on their return to school in August. But Santa Monica Malibu Unified School District Superintendent Ben Drati took some time this week to detail what next year will look like for scholars in the local district.

This time last year, SMMUSD was in the midst of preparing for in-person learning, but everything would suddenly change by August 2020 when students were forced to learn from home via Zoom after changes were made to Senate Bill 98. In the months since, COVID cases have decreased and the district held a board meeting this week where it renewed Emergency Resolution No. 20-02, which was first introduced nearly 11 months ago during the peak of the pandemic, for the final time.

"Things are looking pretty good in the state of California (and) across the nation, but particularly in California," Drati said Thursday when he discussed the changing conditions of districts across the state and the restrictions that are still in place for K-12 education. "SB 98 is what gave school districts the authority to deviate and actually implement virtual learning. Prior to SB 98... schools were unable to have school virtually as we did; that sunsets on July 30 and with that, virtual instruction will not be permitted in the 2021-2022 school year. So, essentially, the state is pushing everybody towards saying that the default is in-person instruction. And any exception to that would have to be some kind of independent studies program."

Drati added he expects the governor to sign the new Senate Bill soon. "So, that's an area we're watching very carefully," Drati said, mentioning he intends to start a community conversation around the topic in the coming weeks. "We have a good description of our

After being sworn in, the person appointed would serve until a new Councilmember is elected at the next general municipal election, which will be Nov. 8, 2022, as

NOTICE OF FILING OF STREETLIGHT ASSESSMENT AND CONFIRMATION OF FINAL ASSESSMENT COSTS FOR THE 10TH STREET (CARLYLE AVENUE TO MARGUERITA AVENUE) STREETLIGHTING ASSESSMENT PROJECT

Pursuant to the requirements of the California Streets and Highways Code, Division 7 (Improvement Act of 1911), the City Council of the City of Santa Monica hereby gives notice that a Public Hearing will be held to allow public testimony regarding the confirmation of assessment costs for the 10th Street Streetlight Assessment District, in the City of Santa Monica.

The PUBLIC HEARING (before City Council) will be held:

DATE: Tuesday, July 13, 2021

TIME: 5:30 pm

LOCATION: Council Chambers Room 213, City Hall 1685 Main Street Santa Monica, CA 90401

On April 18, 2017, the City Council adopted Resolution No. 11035 (CCS), stating its intent to consider the formation of the 10th Street Streetlight Assessment District in accordance with The Improvement Act of 1911 (Streets and Highways Code sections 5000 et seq.). The City Council of the City of Santa Monica adopted Resolution No. 11066 (CCS) on August 8, 2017, after a properly noticed public hearing in which a majority of eligible voters approved the formation of the 10th Street Streetlight Assessment District (10th Street, Carlyle Avenue to Marguerita Avenue) and estimated improvement costs for the district. The streetlight improvements have now been completed. The establishment of such assessment district, initiated by citizens of the City of Santa Monica, will result in the levy of an assessment fee on all parcels of residential, commercial, and industrial property located within such district in the amount of one-half of the estimated improvement costs for such district. The City Council of the City of Santa Monica adopted Resolution No. 11334 (CCS) on June 8, 2021, setting a public hearing on July 13, 2021, to hear any appeals, protests or objections to the confirmation of assessment costs for the installation of new ornamental streetlights on 10th Street between Carlyle Avenue and Marguerita Avenue. All property owners within the district should have received a public notice with an assessment amount on the affected property, and are encouraged to attend the public hearing for the confirmation of assessment costs.

Malibu City Hall Will Open Reopen to the Public at Noon on June 28

With more than half the population of Los Angeles County vaccinated, county and statewide COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations and deaths falling to their lowest levels since the start of the pandemic, and new statewide workplace safety rules adopted June 17, the City of Malibu will open City Hall to the public at noon on Monday, June 28, 2021.

"City Hall is more than just a building, it is an important community gathering place, and a vital hub where community members can participate in public meetings, events and programs, conduct important business, ask questions from and share ideas, concerns and feedback with City leaders and staff who serve the community," said Mayor Paul Grisanti. "It is a great symbol of our progress in fighting the pandemic and returning to our normal lives that it is now safe enough to reopen City Hall for the public, and I can't wait to see our neighbors and friends there in person after all this time."

The California Department of Public Health and the California Occupational Safety and Health Administration (CalOSHA) have provided new workplace rules for organizations statewide, which apply to Malibu City Hall. The City Manager, City Council and Public Safety Manager agreed that it is safe enough for staff as well as the public to reopen City Hall. In order to complete final preparations, City Hall will open to the public on Monday, June 28 at noon, and regular City Hall hours will be observed beginning Tuesday June 29. Regular City Hall hours are Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Fridays 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Public meetings will continue to be virtual until further notice, while plans, budgets and logistics are being examined for how and when to resume in-person public meetings or some hybrid form of virtual/in-person public meetings. Any decision will prioritize public safety and public accessibility and participation.

While the pandemic metrics are steadily improving, there are still people in the community who may not want to or be able to get vaccinated for various reasons, and are therefore still vulnerable to COVID-19. There are also still more contagious coronavirus variants active in Southern California, and COVID-19 continues to spread and be a public health threat for many communities in the United States and in many countries abroad. Therefore, out of an abundance of caution, unvaccinated staff will be asked to continue to wear facemasks in City Hall, and the public will be required to wear facemasks while inside City Hall (and any other indoor City facility or facility being used by the City), regardless of vaccination status. Any changes to these health and safety requirements will be announced to the community.

City Hall had a "soft opening" on Monday, June 21, with the second-floor entry doors open to the public 7:30 AM to 5:30 PM daily and until 4:30 PM on Friday, but with no public counter hours as of yet. Members of the public may come to City Hall without an appointment and remain in the lobby until they can be helped by staff. Appointments can be made online at www.MalibuCity.org/appointments or by phone at 310-456-2489. City Hall's online appointment system will remain available until further notice.

Malibu City Council Reschedules Consideration of Formation of Homelessness Task Force

The Malibu City Council voted during the City Council meeting on June 14, to reschedule the item on the consideration of the formation of a Homelessness Task Force until the July 12, 2021 City Council meeting.

The Council voted to postpone the discussion in order to review numerous documents about the City's past and ongoing work to address homelessness in the community prior to considering the formation and mission of a Homelessness Task Force. The documents are related to the formation and work of the City's Homeless Advisory Group, which was involved in the development of the City's Homeless Strategic Plan, and include community survey results, community outreach efforts, meeting agendas and minutes.

These documents are posted the City's homelessness webpage at https://www.malibucity.org/1066/Reference-Documents for the community to review.

The agenda, staff report and viewing and commenting instructions for the July 12 meeting will be posted prior to the meeting at www.MalibuCity.org/VirtualMeeting.

In response to a growing homeless population in Malibu, the City has increased its measures to address homelessness and its impacts on the community, including the development of a strategic plan, increased participation in events to aid the homeless, and the formation of a working group to strengthen cooperation between the various agencies and organizations providing assistance within the community.

Since 2018, the City has been funding an Outreach Team through the People's Concern who work full-time in Malibu, and can connect homeless people in Malibu with the People Concern's housing, mental healthcare and other services. The City also funds a Housing Navigator, who works with the Outreach Team and landlords to help people experiencing homelessness get off the streets and into housing.

In October 2017, the City received Measure H funding from the County of Los Angeles to develop its Homelessness Strategic Plan, which was adopted by the City Council on June 25, 2018. The Plan is available to view on the City website at https://www.malibucity.org/949/Homelessness-Strategic-Plan. To see all of the City's work addressing homelessness in the community, visit www.MalibuCity.org/Homelessness.

Love 'Em or Hate 'Em, It's Fireworks Season

It's that time of year again. While some love the professional and amateur fireworks displays that can be seen throughout Los Angeles, many pet parents shudder at the thought. Loud noises from fireworks can distress people and pets alike. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Los Angeles (spcaLA) asks the community to consider their neighbors, pets, and the environment, and refrain from setting off fireworks in their neighborhoods.

The loud noises and flashing lights of fireworks can trigger your pet's nervous systems and cause fear and anxiety. A frequent response is to run, which is why so many pets become lost and wind up in shelters at this time of year. This triggering effect can also negatively impact people, such as those coping with traumatic stress or anxiety.

Fireworks in Los Angeles are illegal and can negatively impact the community. With the current severe drought conditions, there is always a looming threat of fire.

While spcaLA and other organizations urge Angelenos to refrain from lighting fireworks, it is almost certainly inevitable. To prepare your pets best you can, please follow these recommendations.

Microchip & I.D. tags: Dogs and cats should be microchipped and wear current I.D. tags at all times. This is the best way towards a happy reunion if your pet goes missing. spcaLA is hosting a clinic that offers microchips on June 26th.

Report lost pets: By law, you MUST report a lost pet to your local animal care services department. Please do this as anyone looking for a lost pet will certainly look there. You can also post lost pets on social media and neighborhood apps. For more recommendations for lost or found pets, visit spcaLA.com.

Keep pets indoors: Leave the family pet at home where they will be safe, secure, and less stressed. Loud noises from fireworks can cause a dog to jump a fence and run away from home or a cat to hide for days. Keeping your pets indoors will keep them out of danger.

Train your dog: Training your dog provides mental stimulation, reduces anxiety and enables you to manage your dog safely. spcaLA offers a variety of dog training classes.

Keep pets comfortable: Create a safe space for your pet in their crate (if crate-trained) or in a cool, well-ventilated room with soothing music playing softly in the background. Include your pet's favorite toys, a tasty chew, a stuffed frozen Kong, and a pet bed or blanket for comfort. Close windows and curtains to muffle noise and block flashing lights. It is ideal if at least one family member can stay home with the pet, and especially so if you know they will be in distress.

Prepare: Consult your vet for prescribed or over-the-counter calming solutions.

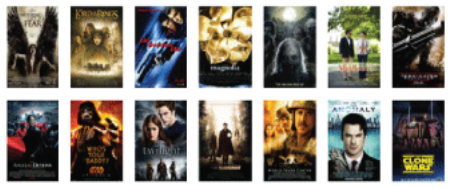

Refrain from restraint: Never tie-up your dog to keep them from escaping. The loud noises from the fireworks can frighten your pooch making them more likely to attempt to flee. Dogs can seriously injure themselves, or even die, trying to escape.

Educate children: Teach them to not scare or tease pets with firecrackers or sparklers.

independent studies program that we would like to implement but I'm going start talking to family members, certain community members and different people to just kind of understand what their concerns and all that so that way we develop a strong program and are also able to explain that, when we come back, that we still have safety protocols in place and that the schools are safe. I think people need to hear that we are confident that our schools are going to be safe."

Though social distance requirements are a mere recommendation and not a requirement, Drati noted the district retains the right to enforce regulations.

"In terms of masks, while inside the building, you still have to wear masks," he added.

"Now, I know this is going to be a huge battle for us. I'm anticipating that, because I know some people are thinking, 'Why am I able to go to the store and not wear masks — particularly for secondary students who are vaccinated. But, right now, that's the current language. It says, 'While inside staff and students have to be masked; outside you don't.'"

Parents are encouraged to sign-up for SMMUSD's newsletter if they wish to be informed about the specifics of independent study, which could see increased enrollment this year since some parents may want to keep students out of the class for an extended period.

"I want to reiterate that the State is telling us that there's two forms of education where you can take ADA on and there's not going to be any kind of fiscal repercussions if you do," Drati said. The first is in-person traditional learning and the second is independent study.

"I said last year in July that SB 98 said we were going to have to be in person and there had to be some level of in-person instruction. And, all of a sudden, all of that changed in August, and then the state said we have to go full on to virtual learning. So, I guess I'm a little gun shy now," Drati said. "I'm just saying this is what it is at this early stage… so, much more to come on that — SB 98 and what next year will look like."

Other meeting items

SMMUSD also adopted its 2021-22 District Budget and Local Control Accountability Plan, which were discussed in detail during the district's public hearing held on June 17. For a complete overview of the district's financials and LCAP, visit smmusd.org.

EVICTION

$85,150 for a household of three, and $94,600 for a household of four. Both landlord and tenants can apply for the rent relief program by visiting housingiskey.com.

Santa Monica residents who are facing eviction attempts and have the qualifying income are eligible for free legal assistance through the City's Right to Counsel project. This resource can be accessed by visiting stayhousedla.org.

Tenants who do not meet qualifying income requirements and are struggling with back-rent are encouraged to communicate directly with their landlord to try and reach an agreement. The Straus Institute at Pepperdine's Caruso School of Law is offering free mediation services to commercial and residential landlords and tenants.

Assuming the Eviction Moratorium does not get extended again, landlords will be able to pursue evictions for non-payment of rent that becomes due during or after Oct 2021.

Tenants who do not receive rent relief funds or reach an agreement with their landlord will still owe all back-rent accumulated under the moratorium after it expires. Although this back rent cannot be used as grounds for an eviction — if tenants meet the declaration and 25 percent payment requirements — landlords can pursue it through small claims court.

COUNCIL

required under the City Charter.

If no appointment is made at the upcoming meeting, then the charter calls for Council to hold a special election to fill the vacancy, according to staff, who noted the election would likely be held on Nov. 2, 2021. The Nomination Period for this election would start on July 12, 2021, and the person elected would serve out the balance of the unexpired term.

The appointment is necessary following an unexpected retirement announcement from Councilmember Kevin McKeown, who was in the midst of his sixth term when he raised his hand during a meeting in May after hours of questions and public comments.

"Before we continue, I have a brief announcement and this is something I wanted to say at the same time, both to the council and to the community. I have decided to retire," McKeown said. "You've all been very kind about me not looking my age but I am well into my seventies. I am profoundly grateful for the many years that I had the privilege and honor of being able to be a service to this city, which I deeply love, but I have decided to retire."

McKeown then exited the zoom and left Council in shock.

At its next meeting, Council adopted a resolution declaring McKeown's seat vacant as of June 11, 2021, and the City Clerk was directed to publish a legal notice for the vacancy and invite online applications of those interested to be presented to the Council at this week's meeting for possible appointment. In total, 35 applications were received by the 12 p.m. June 22, 2021 deadline, according to the recently released Council agenda. A full list is included below:

Virtual Inauguration of incoming American Library Association President-elect Patricia "Patty" Wong

Join Patricia "Patty" Wong at 1 p.m. CT on June 29, as she begins her term as the first Asian American to serve as president of the American Library Association (ALA) and shares her plans for leading the association through an exciting time of change. The virtual event is free and is part of the ALA Annual Conference & Exhibition, June 23-29, 2021.

Wong, city librarian at Santa Monica Public Library, will receive the gavel (virtually) from ALA President Julius C. Jefferson, Jr., at the virtual celebration, which will honor newly elected leadership, including ALA president-elect Lessa Kanani'opua Pelayo-Lozada, ALA Executive Board members and incoming division and roundtable presidents.

You can register at https://bit.ly/3i8NGx2 . All are welcome - so kick back, relax with your favorite beverage and snack, and enjoy the virtual show.

Prior to serving as city librarian at Santa Monica Public Library, Wong was director of library services at Yolo County Library (2008-2017).

An active ALA member for 37 years, Wong has served several terms as at-large councilor (1996-2007, 2012-2014) and as California Chapter councilor (2015-2017). She is a member of several ALA professional affiliates, including the American Indian Library Association, Asian-Pacific American Librarians Association (APALA), Black Caucus of ALA, Chinese American Librarians Association (CALA), and REFORMA: The National Association to Promote Library and Information Services to Latinos and the Spanish Speaking.

During the celebration, Wong will introduce the theme of her presidential year, "Libraries Connect."

"I am excited to serve as 2021-22 president of the American Library Association," Wong said. "I am eager to get to work, along with our great staff, member leaders, affiliate organizations, and allies to move this organization forward to meet the challenges of a post-pandemic reality. Change is coming. But it is not enough to react to change. We must also serve as catalysts for change."

Lessa Kanani'opua Pelayo-Lozada, adult services assistant manager at Palos Verdes Library District in Rolling Hills Estates, California, will begin her term as ALA president-elect. She will assume the ALA presidency in June 2022.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (JUNE 28)

You honor your word and your reputation grows increasingly solid. Even so, you are evolving, opening up to the flow of love and letting more of it flood into every area of your life. Work gets more exciting with fresh input from people of different generations and cultures. Income spikes come in August and October. Virgo and Sagittarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 30, 5, 52, 1 and 19.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Go easy. What bit of complexity can you let go of? Simplicity of thought and action will make room for joy. Patience and accordance with the way things are will bring peace to a chaotic world.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). It is only natural to want to possess these beautiful, temporary states that, ultimately, cannot be owned. It is wise not to throw money at problems that cannot be solved with money.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). The spirit of competition is alive. You wish to be as bright, quick and sharp as you possibly can be, therefore you wish only the best for your opponent. People at their best raise the level for everyone.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Wandering is just what people do. Eyes, minds and bodies flow sometimes purposefully, other times aimlessly, with a restlessness that is part of the human condition. Allow for it. Guide yourself back with kindness.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You are like clay, and everything you let into your life will imprint on you. You're excited about what's going to happen when you let in certain influences. You've a strong sense of how you want to be formed.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Relationships flow through life, some a constant throughout and others salient for a season. Either way, it is your sincere desire that everyone leaves better than before.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You remember the ones you owe a debt to and you're working to pay up. As for those who owe you, you'll put it out of mind. When their payment does come, it will be a delightful surprise.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Love is a verb to you -- a process instead of a thing that exists in space. Finding love will be like discovering yourself in a series of movements and realizing, "Hey, I am dancing."

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). The best way to complain is by making something that's way better. Solutions are coming together in your mind. You're coming into a streak of brilliance.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Compromise is essential to life and relationships, and you're often better for the effort. But if you find yourself having to compromise every little step of the way, it's the sign of a bad fit.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). It is harder for a person who is strongly identifying with every little detail of their image to give themselves over to the unpredictability of the moment. It takes more confidence to lose control than to gain it.
