

Downtown zoning rules make final trip to Council

MATTHEW HALL

Daily Press Editor

The Downtown Community Plan will have its last public hearing on Tuesday during the July 25 City Council Meeting.

The zoning document will guide development in the Downtown area between Wilshire, the freeway, Lincoln and the beach. While Council has already revised zoning rules throughout the city, Downtown was specifically excluded from the citywide standards to allow for an area specific plan.

Council held two days of discussion earlier this month that included options for revising some sections of the plan and a request for the final version to return this week.

In the final document, Council has chosen to preserve three sites that could exceed the design standards set by the DCP. The Plan makes no ruling on what can be built at 1133 Ocean Ave, 101 Santa Monica Blvd. and 4th/5th and Arizona, but it does allow projects at those sites to apply for height limits of up to 130 feet. Outside the three zones, heights are generally limited to 84 feet.

The DCP subdivides Downtown into several small districts and the revised DCP allows office use on the ground floor within the Neighborhood Village district (Broadway to Wilshire and 5th to 7th).

Housing construction has been streamlined to an administrative approval for projects up to 75,000 square feet, density has been increased for the Neighborhood Village area and individual projects are required to produce affordable housing instead of averaging affordable housing production across

Beautify Earth receives Award and continues a movement

MARINA ANDALON

Daily Press Staff Writer

Beautify Earth was recently honored with the Cultural Tourism Champion Award from California Travel Association earlier this month.

The award highlights the impact on tourism through either performance art or visual arts.

In a recent press release, Misti Kerns, President and CEO of Santa Monica Travel & Tourism said, "Beautify Earth is such a wonderful representation of the creative spirit and innovative thinking that is alive and well in Santa Monica."

Previous Cultural Tourism Champion winners include San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and Laura Zucker of the Los Angeles County Arts Commission.

The award recognizes an entertainer, musician, event, festival or individual artists in ceramics, painting, printmaking, design, photography, video, filmmaking, architecture or a related institution. The award recognizes an entity or artist significantly impacting the building of the California Brand and visitation through the Arts.

Beautify Earth was founded by Santa Monica resident and Executive Director, Evan Meyer.

"I was once some crazy guy on Lincoln Boulevard painting walls by myself and sometimes with artist friends and one thing lead to another," said Meyer. "That wall people seem to like, and it got a lot of good traction. From one wall went to another two walls, three, four walls and ultimately leading to projects in New York."

In his acceptance speech he acknowledges his Beautify Earth team, as they are a huge factor to the organization and really bring their mission to life.

Artists Ruben Rojas, business partner to Meyer's said "Beautify Earth's focus has been in Santa Monica with the goal of supporting it to become the first blight free city. We have grown and expanded throughout the country and world organically."

The City has 50 murals by Beautify Earth, and as the startup location and home to the organization, Meyer expressed his gratitude toward the City and said the City has been extremely supportive through it all.

However, Beautify Earth has expanded their vision by not just painting murals in Santa Monica and Venice, but reaching further locations like Seattle, Brooklyn, Mexico and India.

"As a movement it is important to us to share our mission on a global scale," said Rojas.

After receiving the award Meyer

CRIME WATCH

BY DAILY PRESS STAFF

Crime Watch is culled from reports provided by the Santa Monica Police Department. These are arrests only. All parties are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

ON JULY 12, 2017 AT ABOUT 8:32 P.M.

While patrolling in the area of 100 block of Colorado Blvd, officers observed a subject sleeping on a bench. The subject also had numerous personal items spread out amongst the surrounding benches. Officers determined the subject was in violation of the public camping ordinance. Officers attempted to identify the subject; however, he was not cooperative and provided several different names. The subject was taken into custody and transported to SMPD Jail for booking. Travis Dwayne Conish, 35, homeless was arrested for camping in public, and giving false identification to a police officer. Bail was set at $5,000.

believes the award is the first step in not just doing global projects, but spreading the deeper meaning, that art creates to the rest of the world.

“Our world needs love, color and inspiration now, not tomorrow, not next year. Beautify Earth is well on its way of getting there,” said Meyer.

Next month Beautify Earth will host a Pico walking mural tour, showing the public the nearly twenty different murals in the Pico neighborhood. The organization will also be working on a few new projects, which will be taking place in Mid City.

“Beautify Earth is a global movement, and it starts here in Santa Monica,” said Meyer.

the entire city. Affordable housing requirements vary from 20 – 35 percent depending on the project size and if the housing is onsite or offsite.

Projects that are 100 percent affordable housing will have streamlined permitting regardless of size and will have height/density bonuses.

Commercial projects will be subject to administrative approval up to 10,000 square feet which staff say will incentivize housing production.

Parking minimums will be eliminated from the Downtown and the rules have been revised to allow construction of replacement public parking before existing parking is removed.

The plan calls for exploring ways to establish a preference for Santa Monica workers/residents in market rate housing, looking for ways to stabilize rents in middle-income households and finding ways to accommodate artists within ground floor residential units.

Council asked for three specific discussions to be included at the upcoming meeting: incentivizing low cost hotels, accommodating the Boys and Girls Club’s concerns about their potential remodel and answering issues related to a property at 201 Wilshire Blvd.

Staff are recommending possible regulatory incentives to encourage affordable overnight accommodation and a commitment to bringing services downtown that benefit a broad swath of people.

The staff report does not recommend exempting the Boys and Girls Club from the review process but does suggest legally-established, youth serving nonprofits that want to expand their facilities could be subject to administrative approval up to 25,000 square feet and with at Development Review Permit beyond that. Staff said specific language could be added to the DCP directing the City to collaborate with the Boys and Girls club to overcome obstacles to their renovation.

The project at 201 Wilshire is requesting additional height and density bonuses on the grounds it doesn’t abut residential properties. Staff said it’s possible to include narrowly worded language that could facilitate a denser project at that site for a housing project.

Council will meet on July 25 in City Hall, 1685 Main St. Closed session begins at 4:30 p.m. and open session will not begin before 5:30 p.m.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (July 24)

Your charisma is shining strong this solar return. August features exploration, and four weeks later, you'll benefit from what you discover. New ways to interact with family in 2018 will make daily life more enjoyable. Work projects pay fantastically in November. An alliance leads to deeper passions and a new venture. Virgo and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 30, 2, 28, 7 and 17.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Much will depend on the fitness of your competition. There's little glory in an easy win. Also note that though a touch of competitiveness brings spice to a relationship, too much of it will ruin the balance.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
The invitation sounds promising. Say yes! The invitation is intriguing. Say yes! The invitation is to give with no hope of ever being repaid. Say yes! You haven't fully lived until you've given what cannot possibly be repaid.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21)
You're drawn to those who have earned their status. You've done this in the past, and you're about to do it again. You've less respect for those who have inherited status, though you might also learn from their point of view.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
There's something heroic in you. It will show in today's reflexive impulse -- a lightning-quick response to the needs of others. Even if they happen to take advantage of your kindness, you'll never be sorry you helped.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
To extract meaning and deep engagement from your activities is to avoid the anxiety and destruction that can sneak through the alleyway of existential boredom.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
There are no bad or wrong emotions. All of your emotions have a purpose for you. It is only when you dismiss or ignore the message of emotions that they become a problem in your day.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
You will use your money to talk. You will boycott or buycott according to your beliefs and political views. The story of products will matter to you as much or more than the products themselves.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21)
Life has a way of morphing into the thing you expect it to be. But what would it be if you didn't impose your expectation? Stay curious and open to the wonderful possibilities.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
The adventure will start with new social contacts. Branch out. Ask friends to introduce you to people you don't know. You'll make fast friends by participating in games and groups.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Today you'll be a receptacle for emotions that come from all over the place -- from passersby, from the sky, from the pages of your book, from the places you land on the internet and more.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
There's power in being cool; however, the enormously powerful don't have to be cool to be accepted. Note the difference between status and authority. You'll have the option to align with what's powerful or with what's cool.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
Big companies were once small startups. Many ventures have their origins in a parent's garage. You'll be inspired by the work ethic of those who have built their dreams. You have it in you to do this, too.

Venus Opposes Saturn

Under this opposition of Venus and Saturn, we are charged with making relationship decisions with absolutely no guidance or guarantee as to the outcome. Also, there's but a finite amount of time to choose. Love is always a make-it-up-as-you-go thing. If you knew the outcome, it wouldn't be a risk. Without risk, there is no reward.

WELL NEWS BY SCOTT LALEE

Hypochondriac's Guide

■ Craniopagus parasiticus is even worse than it sounds. It is an extremely rare medical condition in which a baby is born with a parasitic second head. The extra head lacks a functioning brain and is, in effect, the attached remnants of an unsuccessful twin. ■ Only 10 cases have been documented in modern medical history; and just three resulted in live births with no happy endings. In 2003, an infant named Rebeca Martinez in the Dominican Republic underwent the first operation to remove the second head. She died soon after the 11-hour surgery. In 2005, a 10-month-old girl named Manar Maged underwent a successful 13-hour operation, but died just before her second birth of a severe brain infection. ■ Finally, an Indian boy dubbed "Two-Headed Boy of Bengal" was born in 1783, but died four years later from a cobra bite. His skull is preserved at the Hunterian Museum in London.

SOME CHANGES ARE HARD, BUT AT LEAST
WE MAKE REPLACING YOUR WINDOWS EASY.

The most hassle-free home improvement project you'll ever have. You won't have to deal with a manufacturer or chase down an installer—we handle the entire process. We build, install and warrant all our windows and patio doors.

Andersen is the window that every homeowner wants. We're the full-service replacement window division of Andersen, and our window is engineered to save you money on your energy bills and make your home more comfortable.

29,822 other Southern California homeowners have trusted us. That means we understand the window and patio door problems in this area. And our installers are true craftsmen who will completely and thoroughly clean up after your upgrade is complete.

We won't try to "sell" you on vinyl. Poor-quality vinyl windows can discolor, leak and warp just a few years after they're installed, so we refuse to sell them. Our window's Fibrex® composite material is twice as strong as vinyl.
