Purify Me, Lord

Purify me, Lord—Lift the darkness from my soul.
Purify me, Lord—Cleanse the private corners I withhold.
Make me right before Your throne
Sing out, my soul, the goodness of our God,
The mercies of our God,
To kneel in worship—pure, atoned.
The greatness of our God!
Take the pain that still remains, Purify me, Lord.

The emptiness that sin can brings is hollow, dark and void—
It robs the very breath from me, the joy Your love affords.
Consume me with a fire that will purify my soul.
Renew Your Spirit in me, Lord, and make me whole.

Purify me, Lord—Lift the darkness from my soul.
Purify me, Lord—Cleanse the private corners I withhold.
Make me right before Your throne
To kneel in worship—pure, atoned.
Take the pain that still remains, Purify me, Lord.

Let the warmth, the peace, the power flood my heart today.
Restore, renew, empower all the words I pray.

Purify me, Lord—Lift the darkness from my soul.
Purify me, Lord—Cleanse the private corners I withhold.
Make me right before Your throne
To kneel in worship—pure, atoned.
Take the pain that still remains, Purify me, Lord.
Amen.

Adapted from the Generations of Grace Family Devotional, available at the bookstore.
As the holiday season approaches, we are reminded of God’s many blessings. This past year, our church has seen God’s faithfulness in many ways. The Lord has enabled us to meet weekly for worship, host numerous classes and events, and continue our ministry to our children through Sunday School, Adventure Club, and Vacation Bible School. Our church is abounding in gratitude because of all that we have received from the Lord (Colossians 2:6–7).

As we kick off this holiday season, our desire is to remember God’s many provisions to us in thanksgiving, and to celebrate—in particular—God’s gracious gift of family. This is a powerful testimony to a watching world, as well as to the precious children in our church as they grow in their understanding of God. To that end, we are excited to announce that our annual Family Fair will be held this Saturday, October 30, from 12:00–4:00 pm across our church’s campus.
Come join us for an afternoon of games, bounce houses, rock walls, and fellowship! Tickets will be available to purchase for festival activities and food and, as always, there will be prizes for children of all ages to win.

This event provides a unique opportunity for our church to show the world our love for one another and the joy we have in Christ. To that end, please invite friends who may be interested in coming and pray for the many neighborhood families who have received our invitation flyers. We look forward to enjoying an afternoon together as we celebrate the kindness of our Lord in providing the blessing of family. See you at the fair!

TheoTech
2021 Conference | God, Technology and Man
Saturday, October 30 • The Master’s University

How do we glorify God with technology? How does technology relate to God’s command for us to subdue the earth? How should we understand artificial intelligence in light of being made in the image of God? What does technological creativity reveal about the creative activity of God?

Join us as Dr. Abner Chou, interim President of The Master’s University, and Dr. John Lennox, Christian apologist and Oxford scholar, together with Dr. John MacArthur and the TMU science and technology faculty, explore these questions and more at TMU’s first annual TheoTech Conference.

As technology becomes increasingly significant in our everyday lives, these issues must be understood not only by experts in these fields, but by every Christian seeking to steward the deep impact and obvious usefulness of technology. In this exciting new conference, we’ll unpack the meaning and nature of technology from a theological and historical standpoint.

Please join us on October 30 for this landmark event. To register or view the conference schedule, visit masters.edu/theotech.
