COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- A. During this course, the student will be given reading assignments; these will consist of particular sections of various books. The student needs to read carefully, thinking about how the material applies to his own life, as well as others he may be in contact with. The student is required to complete two reading reports, due on October 20 and November 24.
- B. The student is required to write a research paper (10 pages—typed) on the topic of “Remorse and Repentance vs. Remorse and Penance.” This topic is critical as we deal with salvation and sanctification. The student needs to define these terms and research this topic from the Scriptures. Additionally, the student will explain how he was personally affected by this project and how he would counsel a person who is involved in remorse and penance. Due November 10.
- C. The student will also be required to complete a 2-page summary paper, due November 17. This paper will be an evaluation of how the course material assisted the student in the change process within his own life. The pastor will also be looking for the importance of these truths for future ministry (2 Cor. 1:1–7).

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cheating of any kind, whether it takes the form of plagiarism, copying another student’s paper, or circumventing the integrity of any assignment, is viewed seriously and constitutes grounds for failure of the class.
