

Missing Children Program

At TRECA, the safety and well-being of our students is our highest priority. We maintain a Missing Children Informational Program to provide families, students, and staff with practical resources on personal safety, abduction prevention, and missing child procedures

Ohio & National Safety Links

For immediate assistance, safety tools, and missing persons databases, explore the official resources below:

- Ohio Attorney General's Missing Persons Unit & Clearinghouse
The official state clearinghouse operated by the Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) under R.C. 109.65. It manages Ohio's missing child search databases, coordinates statewide AMBER Alerts, and provides investigative support, law enforcement training, and public safety resources to assist in locating missing individuals.
- National Center for Missing & Exploited Children \(NCMEC\)
The nation's primary non-profit clearinghouse dedicated to finding missing children, preventing child victimization, and combating child sexual exploitation. It operates a 24/7 national call center (1-800-843-5678), assists law enforcement with abduction cases, and provides comprehensive safety toolkits for families, schools, and communities.
- NCMEC NetSmartz Online Safety Education
An educational program designed for students in grades K–12, educators, and parents to teach online safety and digital citizenship. It provides free, age-appropriate resources; including videos, games, classroom lesson plans, and discussion guides that focus on avoiding online strangers, preventing cyberbullying, protecting digital privacy, and recognizing online grooming.
- KidSmartz Abduction Prevention Program
A personal safety curriculum created specifically for elementary school students (grades K–5) and their caregivers. It uses interactive activities, videos, and take-home guides to teach children "4 Rules of Personal Safety" to help them recognize, avoid, and report potentially dangerous situations and abduction risks without causing unnecessary fear.
