Redington-Fairview General Hospital Named a 2025 Best Place to Work in Maine

Skowhegan, Maine - The Maine State Council of the Society for Human Resource Management, Best Companies Group, and BridgeTower Media have named Redington-Fairview General Hospital (RFGH) as one of the 2025 Best Places to Work in Maine in the large employer category.

Best Places to Work in Maine identifies, recognizes, and honors the best places of employment in Maine. To be considered, companies must have at least 15 full-time or part-time employees working in Maine; be a for-profit or not-for-profit business or government entity; be a publicly or privately held business; have a facility in the state of Maine; and be in business for a minimum of one year.

“Redington-Fairview General Hospital is honored to once again be recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Maine for 2025,” said Rachel Grant, Human Resources Director. “We extend our gratitude to every member of our team whose dedication and commitment make RFGH not only a successful hospital, but also a truly great place to work. We are fortunate to have such an exceptional staff.”

There were two parts used to determine the rankings. The first, worth approximately 25 percent of the total evaluation, consisted of evaluating each nominated company's workplace policies, practices, and demographics. The second part, worth 75 percent of the total, consisted of an employee survey to measure the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top companies and the final rankings.

“The 2025 Best Places to Work in Maine know that the people in their organizations are the key to their success. These businesses realize what it takes to create an environment that results in teamwork and excellence,” said Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, managing director of BridgeTower Media for the East Division.

“BridgeTower Media is pleased to join the Maine State Council of the Society for Human Resource Management and the Best Companies Group in honoring these outstanding Maine businesses.”

RFGH will join other winners at a Rock N Roll-themed celebration at the Augusta Civic Center on October 7, where final rankings will be announced. The Best Places to Work in Maine Endorsement Sponsor is Maine HR Convention.
